Perry Highway Crash Fatal To Injured Woman

Mrs. H. T. Heironimous, Of Powellton, W. Va., Dies Today Of Injuries

TEN INJURED IN HEAD-ON COLLISION

Accident Occurs On Tuesday About Noon Just South Of Mercer

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., July 31.—Injuries suffered in the head-on crash of two automobiles near here resulted today in the death of Mrs. Homer T. Heironimous, wife of a Powellton,. W. Va., minister.

Ten persons were injured in the crash, which occurred yesterday, about noon. In addition to the fatal injuries received by Mrs. Heironimous, her husband, and Dan McCullough, 31, West Newton, Pa., were critically hurt. Rev. Heironimus was not expected to live

McCullough, riding in his machine with eight other persons returning from a camping trip, at Cochranton, Pa., was in serious condition in Mercer hospital.

Mercer county authorities stated that the crash was the most serious that has ever taken place in Mercer county. When State trooper John Eben and County Detective Sam Leyshock, of Mercer, arrived at the scene, they found the occupants of the two cars, eleven in all, lying on or near the highway. All were unconscious or stunned, and could not tell what had happened.

The victims were taken to the Mercer hospital in machines which were halted by the officers as they came upon the scene.

Treated At Hospital

Those treated at the Mercer hospital, and the extent of their injuries, were the following:

Mrs. Ann McCullough, aged 28, wife of Dan McCullough, dislocated wrist, bruises and lacerations.

Their two children, Dan, Jr., aged 3, lacerations, and Charles, aged 5, lacerations and bruises.

Harold Easter, aged 14, West Newton, bruises and lacerations.

Frank Matthews, aged 23, West Newton, suffering from shock, not treated.

Mrs. Margaret Matthews, aged 17, wife of Frank Matthews, lacerations and bruises.

John Feeney, aged 26, Uniontown, lacerations about the head.

Miss Valetta Feeney, aged 21, Uniontown, lacerations.

Rev. Homer T. Heironimous, Powelltown, W. Va, possible fracture of the skull, left leg broken, and lacerations.

River Detail May Go To Conneaut To Search For Body

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGRH, July 31.—With renewed efforts proving fruitless in the attempt to recover the body of Edward Quinn, Pittsburgh youth, from the waters of Conneaut Lake, city officials today were ready to send a river detail to the lake to aid in the search.

Authorities said they would send the detail, requested by parents of the boy, who was drowned while swimming Monday, if the proper officials granted the permission. It was believed dynamiting would have to be resorted to in locating the body.

Shenango Pottery Gets Huge Order

Announcement was made today of the awarding of a huge government order for china to the Shenango Pottery company, of this city. The order is for 250,000 pieces of china ware for CCC camps, to be delivered to the United States Quartermaster Depot in Jeffersonville, Indiana, within 150 days. The order approximates $50,000.

The order is the largest china order awarded by the government thus far this year and was given to the Shenango Pottery after exceptionally keen bidding. While it will not add to the personnel of the pottery it will bring the plant up to near capacity for the balance of the year.

Included in the order are such articles as meat platters, butter dishes, soup bowls, sugar bowls and the like. All of the ware will be used in CCC camps and this order adds to the ones already turned out by the local pottery for the government.

Recently the quartermaster's depot was moved from Philadelphia, to Jeffersonville, Indiana. Because of this it was necessary to stock various kinds of equipment needed for distribution to camps and the present order is the result of this need.

Production will be started immediately on the new order and the pottery will make delivery on time according to James M. Smith, Sr., president of the Shenango Pottery company.

Youth Is Drowned In Slippery Rock

Swimming Tragedy Occurs In Vicinity Of Rose Point Tuesday Evening

VICTIM'S HOME AT CANONSBURG

Kenneth Hamilton, 23, Fails To Come To Surface After Diving

Tragedy halted what had been intended to be a happy gathering of young people from this city and Pittsburgh district at the Duff cottage, along Slippery Rock creek, last evening, when Kenneth Hamilton, aged 23, of R. F. D. No. 2, Canonsburg, was drowned immediately after entering the water shortly after six o'clock.

Hamilton, who was not an expert swimmer, dove into the water and never came up, it was stated by members of the party. When he did not come to the surface within a reasonable length of time, those who were present began a search for his body, and it was located in about six feet of water by Eric Olson, of 1213 Albert street.

Resuscitation Efforts Fail

Olson succeeded in getting the body to shore and began applying artificial respiration. In the meantime, the city police and a local doctor were notified and went to the scene. Lieut. Criswell, Officer Tommy Lynch and Mrs. Minnie McKibben hurrying to the spot with the city pulmotor.

Although Hamilton's body had only been in the water a matter of three or four minutes, all efforts to resuscitate him proved in vain, and after working desperately for two hours, his rescuers had to give up.

Coroner Orville Potter, who was summoned to the scene, pronounced Hamilton's death as accidental.

The party, to which a group of New Castle and Pittsburgh young people had been invited, was being given by Miss Mary Hammill, of this city.

Funeral Friday

Hamilton, it was stated, had been working hard all day, getting ready to leave for the scene. It is possible that the excitement may have had something to do with the drowning, as he entered the water immediately

Flaherty Returns From England

Says "Business Is Booming" On British Isles At Present Time

"Business in Great Britain is booming" declared P. J. Flaherty, president of the Johnson Bronze company today. Mr. Flaherty has just returned from a business trip to the British Isles which took a month.

"Industries are busy, everybody seems to be working and conditions in general in the British Isles are much as they were here in 1929" said Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty was impressed with the beauty of the English country side. Twilight lasts until nearly ten o'clock there and on many evenings friends of his took him on motor trips through the historic little English villages. Most of his business was conducted in Birmingham and Coventry.

On the return trip Mr. Flaherty and a companion flew to Paris from London, spent several days in Paris and then boarded the boat at Cherbourg.

East Side Picnic Throng At Park

First Community Outing For East Side Attracts Large Crowd

FEATURES GALORE ARE ON PROGRAM

Threatening earlier in the day, the weather man relented at noon for the East Side community picnic and the indications were that the weather would be propitious for this first annual affair of the East Siders in Cascade Park.

At noon the merchants of the East Side closed their places of business and prepared for an afternoon of recreation. Under the direction of Carl W. Haufler, general chairman, and a number of committees a program of sport, entertainment and dancing has been prepared and the entire afternoon and evening hours will be given over to pleasure.

The plans for the East Side community picnic have been under way for several weeks. The idea was received enthusiastically by the East Side merchants and citizens and an invitation has been extended to all of New Castle and Lawrence county to join in the fun making.

At 7:30 tonight the grand drawing will take place at the band stand and for this event thousands are expected to be present.

Issue Summons For Man Wanted As Probe Witness

Senate Lobby Committee Issues Summons To U. S. Marshal For H. C. Hopson

(International News Service)

Washington, July 31.—Tired of waiting for a voluntary appearance, the Senate lobby committee today handed the United States marshal in New York today a formal summons for H. C. Hopson, Associated Gas and Electric company "master mind" whom the committee has sought as a witness for ten days.

Besides the legal summons handed the U. S. Marshal, there are three other summonses in the hands of committee investigators.

If these efforts fail to produce the missing witness, the committee chairman, Senator Black (D) of Alabama, said he was prepared to issue summons through every U. S. marshal in the country, and if necessary, put federal "G-men" on Hopson's trail.

Black had expected that the publicity attending the committee's search for Hopson would result in the utility magnate's appearance today. However, early this morning, committee employees reported to the chairman they have not heard from him, and formal steps were taken to bring him in.

Thompson's Fate Soon With Jury

Expect Trial Of Confessed Attack-Murderer To Be Completed Today

(International News Service)

PEORIA, Ill., July 31.—The fate of Gerald Thompson, confessed attack-murderer of 19-year-old Mildred Hallmark, will be in the hands of the jury tonight.

With the defense abruptly closing its case late yesterday, final arguments and Judge Joseph Daily's instructions to the jurors were expected to be completed today.

The defense suffered two severe blows yesterday—refusal of physicians to allow the ailing mother of the sex-mad 25-year-old machinist to leave a hospital to testify to the moral eccentricities of her son, and the refusal of the court to admit his "black book," a diary containing meticulously kept records of attacks on 83 Peoria women, as evidence.

Defense Attorney Ren Thurman is attempting to save his youthful client from the electric chair by proving him "sexually insane."

RED BRUSH AND SCHIEVER SCHOOL REUNION PLANNED

The 11th annual reunion of all teachers, pupils and patrons of the Schiever school district and the Red Brush school district, Lancaster township, Butler county, will be held on Wednesday, August 14, in the orchard of the Calvin Belles home, near the Schiever school building.

A big turnout is expected at this outing, and it is anticipated this year's event will surpass all previous ones as special efforts have been made by those in charge to make it outstanding. A picnic dinner will be served on the grounds.

Woman Dancer Says She's Ready To Pay Penalty

Confessed Torso Murderer Expects To Receive Death Decree

NOT WORRIED BY ELECTRIC CHAIR

State To Demand Death Penalty For Victim's Mother-In-Law Also.

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, July 31.—Evelyn Smith, who in her heyday did "strip" dances in a West Side Chicago honky-tonk, is ready for the electric chair, she said today.

Indictments will be sought today against the 46-year-old former burlesque queen who yesterday smilingly, unemotionally confessed the gruesome torso murder of Ervin J. Lang; and Mrs. Blanche Dunkel, mother-in-law of the victim, who has confessed she promised to pay Evelyn $500 for the crime.

Death Sentences Sought

Mad jealousy precipitated by Lang's approaching marriage to Miss Josephine McKinley, 21, and hatred because of her unrequited love were her motives, Mrs Dunkel has confessed.

Assistant state's attorney Charles S. Dougherty said death in the electric chair will be sought for both women.

Informed today the state will seek to atone for Lang's murder by putting her in the electric chair, Mrs. Smith was unperturbed, replied:

"I'm ready for the chair. It's better than putting up with all that has happened.

"I might be better off dead than alive, anyway.

"And it wouldn't break my heart if Blanche makes that trip with me."

Dougherty will also seek an indictment against Harry Jung, Evelyn's fugitive Chinese husband.

Turns On Evelyn Smith

Chicago, July 31.—Blanche Dunkel turned bitterly today on Evelyn Smith, the woman who was her crony and confessed accomplice in the torso murder of Ervin J. Lang, her son-in-law.

Views Of Mussolini And Haile Selassie Outlined On Crisis

By GUGLIELMO EMANUEL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, July 31.—Premier Benito Mussolini told the world today there is "only one solution" to his quarrel with Abyssinia, and that solution will be found regardless of how the League of Nations decides to act.

In a lengthy revealing article signed by himself and published in his own newspaper, the Popolo D'Italia of Milan, Il Duce discussed the threatened war with Abyssinia fully, all his remarks being based on the assumption Italy will get all she wants from Abyssinia, the wishes of other people notwithstanding.

Simple Problem.

Declaring the Abyssinian problem is one of "simplicity and absolute logic," Musolini added:

ADDIS ABABA, July 31.—Hopeful the League of Nations Council will find some means of settling the dispute with Italy, Ethiopia remains prepared to "make the supreme sacrifice" if necessary, Emperor Haile Selassie told International News Service in an exclusive interview today.

Seated in his study in Gibbi Palace, the 44-year-old black-bearded monarch of Abyssinia discussed at length and in detail the impending hostilities which appear to threaten the peace of the world.

See Determination

Through his measured words ran a steady current of determination to meet the issue by force of arms if necessary, coupled with avowal his nation will pursue a course of peace as long as possible.

Cleveland Man Victim Of Fiend

Chemistry Professor Dies In Chicago After Being Mutilated

TELLS IDENTITY OF HIS ATTACKER

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

CHICAGO, July 31.—Walter J. Bauer, 38-year-old Cleveland, O., chemistry professor, died here today, the victim of a fiendish mutilation attack.

Before dying, Bauer told police he was attacked in an isolated section of Chicago's South Side by a man he identified as Manville Zenka.

Married Two Weeks Ago

Bauer told police he was married two weeks ago, and advanced the theory that his attacker and kidnaper may have been a jealous suitor of his bride, a nurse at the Laughlin hospital, Kirksville, Mo.

He met Zenka, Bauer said, in an Ann Arbor hotel July 26. Bauer was taking post-graduate work in the University of Michigan summer school.

Last night, Bauer said, as he was passing through the lobby of the hotel intending to drive to the business district Zenka asked if he might accompany him.

They both entered Bauer's car and had driven but a short distance when Zenka prodded him with a revolver, ordered him to drive to Chicago, Bauer related.

Ties Hands And Feet

"You better do what I tell because I'm desperate. I'm wanted all over the country and if I'm caught it's the 'hot seat' for me," Bauer quoted his kidnaper as saying.

In a lonely section of Chicago's South Side, the victim said, Zenka ordered him to stop the car, tied his hands and feet, and with a pocketknife began the fiendish operation. Bauer mercifully lost consciousness.

When Bauer revived he called for help and two filling station attendants came to his aid, rushed him to a hospital where he died.

Telegram Adds Mystery

Ann Arbor, Mich., July 31.—New mystery today was injected into the fanatical slaying of Walter J. Bauer, 38-year-old University of Michigan graduate student, in Chicago, after police here discovered a torn telegram in Bauer's room.

Pieced together, the telegram read:

"No foundation for accusations. Doctor George's reactions quite unfavorable. Louise has not been told. Square yourself by all means with her."

Dated Kirksville, Mo., the telegram was signed but police refused to divulge the signature.

The "Louise" mentioned was believed to be Bauer's bride of two weeks, a nurse at a Kirksville hospital.

Truck Upsets; Three Injured

Three Pittsburgh Young Men Are Injured Near Rose Point Tuesday

ACCIDENT OCCURS AT 3:15 O'CLOCK

Three young men, Pittsburgh residents, were injured, one seriously, Tuesday afternoon about 3:15 o'clock, when a truck in which they were riding upset as it was rounding a curve, near Rose Point.

William Richards, aged 18, of 1208 Spring Garden avenue, Pittsburgh, was the more seriously injured. He sustained internal injuries as well as chest, face and arm lacerations. He was brought to the New Castle hospital by P. J. Bush, of Prospect, Pa.

Calvin Keller, aged 19, 2131 Lowrie avenue, Pittsburgh, the driver of the truck, bruised his left arm and shoulder. His condition is good. He is confined to the New Castle hospital.

Rudolph DiGregory, aged 22, of 816 James street, Pittsburgh, the other occupant of the truck, injured his back and received lacerations above both eyes, elbows and knees. Keller and DeGregory were brought to the New Castle hosptial by William Bevan, of 155 South Mill Run Boulevard, Pittsburgh, a passing motorist.

Keller was driving a truck owned by the Imperial Battery company, of Pittsburgh. The party was headed towards Pittsburgh.

State Department To Make Reply To Germany's Protest

Await Report From New York On Bremen Flag Incident Before Replying

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Having let Germany know indirectly but unmistakably that American sympathies are with those who are suffering religious persecution under the Nazi regime, the state department today awaited a full report from New York City authorities on the Bremen flag incident before replying to Germany's protest.

If the report supports unofficial word which has reached the state department concerning the flag incident, it is possible this government may repute Germany's charges that there was not adequate police protection on the night Communist demonstrators boarded the Bremen and torn down the Nazi flag from the bow of the ship.

Word has reached the state department that the New York police warned the ship's officers several hours in advance that a Communist demonstration was expected and it would be advisable to curtail the visitors permitted to board ship.

Report Attitude Of Great Britain Is Softened Some

May Admit Postponement Of Settlement Of Larger Issues To August 25

OPENING SESSION ENDED IN CLASH

Italy's Financial Difficulties May Be Aid To Troubled League Diplomats

By H. K. REYNOLDS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, July 31.—While the world awaits Britain's lead at Geneva, it was strongly indicated today Captain Anthony Eden, chief of the British delegation, would refrain from waving the "big stick" to force solution of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

Whereas a week ago Britain was insisting the whole crisis be aired before the league, the government's attitude has softened to the extent of admitting possibility of postponement of settlement of the larger issues involved until August 25.

This depends upon outcome of Eden's talks with Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy.

Geneva's problem now resolves itself into the question of who will be the fifth arbitrator named to the conciliation commission. Official indications here confirm Premier Mussolini has greed to appointment of such a referee.

British circles insist the mandate issue is unlikely to be raised because it goes too far for Abyssinia and not far enough for Italy.

Immediate Clash

Geneva, July 31.—The League of Nations Council's opening session to discuss the threatened Italo-Abyssinian war lasted only one hour today, but the brief meeting was marked by an immediate clash between delegates of the two disputant countries.

Italian and Abyssinian delegates locked horns immediately on the issue of what the council is to debate, Abyssinia demanding a full

United States May Protest To Soviet

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The United States today moved nearer making a formal protest to Soviet Russia against the complete disregard of solemn pledges made to this country in connection with communistic propaganda activities.

State department officials have, it was learned, reached the conclusion that propaganda activities which the Soviet government has permitted at the present meeting of the communist third internationale congress at Moscow represent an outright violation of pledges made to this country at the time American recognition was accorded the Soviet regime.

Pledges Broken.

The breaking of these pledges are viewed with such concern by this government that a high ranking official of the state department has directed that a report be drafted on the matter.

This report is now being drawn by state department officials. It may form the basis of a formal protest to the Soviet government. This pro-

PROBE EXTORTION RACKET

New England Folks Targets

Two Are Held And Dozen Other Men Are Being Questioned

IDENTITY KEPT SECRET BY POLICE

(International News Service)

SALEM, Mass., July 31.—A former high school football star and a police force applicant were held as "catspaws" today and a dozen other men were being questioned while federal agents probed a wholesale extortion racket directed at wealthy summer residents of the North Shore colony.

The amateur extortionists plot was uncovered when plans to "take" Walter E. Poor, well known industrialist, for a large sum went awry. Poor's two sons, George, 18, and Arthur, 16, reported targets of extortion letters and threatening phone messages, were in seclusion while both the summer and winter homes of Poor were under police guard.

Identity of the suspects held here was not divulged, other than revelation that one was a former football player and the other an unemployed applicant for a patrolman's post.

Tracing of the telephone calls resulted in the capture of the two men and the questioning of a dozen others. Telephones at the Poor residences had been under surveillance for several weeks. Amounts demanded by the extortionists were not disclosed, estimates ranging variously from $1,000 to $100,000.

Say Plot Solved.

Salem, Mass., July 31.—With the arrest today of Joseph K. Gallo, 20, former high school football star, G-men said they were convinced they had "completely solved" an amateur extortion plot against Walter E. Poor, wealthy industrialist.

As the youth was being booked on violating the extortion laws, Chief Justice Agent Clarence D. McKean said the case was "cleaned up", three other suspects had been released and that there was no wholesale extortion racket planned among wealthy North Shore summer residents as at first suspected.

Gallo, one-time football captain and basketball star, denied the allegations.

A Chicago millionaire left $2,000 to two courteous traffic cops. The amount is not expected to cover the expenses of a search.

An all-steel piano is expected to be put on the market in the near future. This includes a steel casing.

VIEWS OF MUSSOLINI OUTLINED ON CRISIS

with Geneva, without Geneva, or against Geneva—only one solution.

"All other political motives are important, but are not decisive."

Concerning the goal of his program in East Africa, Il Duce said:

"Two essential arguments are absolutely irrefutable: the vital needs of the Italian people, and the military safety of East Africa.

"The abolition of slavery is not our object, but will be a logical consequence of our policy in Abyssinia. The Abyssinians do not consider themselves 'niggers", but Semites.

"There are several tens of thousands of Negroes indirectly under our flag. They always have fought magnificently for us and with us.

"The theme of civilization must not be exploited too much. Also, civilization, both moral and material, is not an object but will be a consequence of our policy."

Accuses Abyssinia.

After reviewing Italy's relations with Abyssinia and recalling how after signing of the Italo-Abyssinian treaty of friendship of 1928 Abyssinia allegedly began reorganizing an army of anti-Italian sympathies and aims, Mussolini declared:

"It is clear that the strategic situation of our colonies, which is precarious in normal times, would be untenable under any extraordinary circumstances."

Il Duce's signed article, probably the most complete official resume of the Italian case regarding Abyssinia which has been given out during the current crisis, was timed to coincide with the opening session today of the League of Nations council meeting at Geneva to debate the East African war threat.

Foreign observers noted that Mussolini again defied the league regarding Abyssinia by stating he would go along with the league just so long as the league went his way.

STATE SHIPS OUT TREE SEEDLINGS

HARRISBURG, July 31—The Department of Forests and Waters has "closed its books" on the spring shipment of seedlings from its four State Forest nurseries. Shipments totaled 8,026,687 trees, valued at $18,000.

This total included 5,000,000 trees which were shipped to private individuals at two and five dollars per thousand. The remainder was transplanted on State-owned forest and park lands.

Seed already has been sown for the next crops at the Clearfield, Greenwood, Penn and Mt. Alto Nurseries, and it is estimated that that Department will have 9,000,000 trees available for the spring shipment of 1936.

England claims to be setting the rest of the world a pace this year in the installation of telephones.

discussion on the entire quarrel, and Italy insisting the debate be limited to the scope of the May 25 resolution and one border incident.

Premier Pierre Laval of France intervenved in the role of peacemaker and proposed an adjournment, even though the meeting had been in session less than an hour, asking that time be given for further "star chamber" negotiations.

Accordingly, the meeting was adjourned until tomorrow.

Finances Are Factor

London, July 31.—Italy's financial difficulties may be an aid to the troubled diplomats assembling today in Geneva to seek a solution for the tangled Abyssinian dispute.

Enquiries have been made in London on behalf of Italy with the object of raising fresh trade credits, it was reported in financial circles, but banking interests are understood not to regard the extension of credits to Italy as an attractive commercial proposition at present.

Meanwhile, during Capt. Anthony Eden's absence at Geneva as head of the British delegation, a decision is likely to be reached here regarding additional troops to guard the British legation at Addis Ababa.

Emperor Haile Selassie has opposed the step as unnecessary.

Britain is expected to support postponement of a full debate on the entire-Italo-Abyssinian quarrel if the plan for a delay receives the slightest encouragement, in the belief that it would be preferable to allow time for further diplomatic negotiations that might lead to a solution before the next league meeting August 25.

That Italy is believed prepared to agree to the appointment of a fifth arbitrator on the Italo-Abyssinian conciliation commission as a step to settlement of the dispute was reported by Reuter's from Rome.

WOMAN DANCER SAYS SHE'S READY TO PAY PENALTY

evidence to return a swift indictment against the two women, Mrs. Dunkel in an amazing interview declared that Evelyn the former honky tonk dancer had doublecrossed her.

"I would never have consented to letting her do it the way she did," Mrs. Dunkel said. "The way we talked it over, Evelyn was to put Erv to sleep, strangle him and throw his body in the lake.

"There wasn't supposed to be any mess. When she told me how she cut him up, it just made me sick"

Both have confessed, Mrs. Dunkel to hiring Evelyn to commit the killing for $500 and Evelyn to the actual killing.

"Evelyn Smith misrepresented me terribly," Mrs. Dunkel continued. First she worked on me so she got me to let her kill Ervin. Then she went ahead and did it all differently than she promised.

"She lied about the money. She says I didn't give her any part of the $500 she was promised. But I did. Erv's brother can tell you I took $100 from the savings deposit box. Nobody saw me but I gave Evelyn five $20 bills."

Mrs. Dunkel appeared a broken woman today, sobbing frequently and dabbing her eyes with her handkerchief, and declared she was "going along" with the state's attorney's office.

of the difficulty of her task, but she is confident that the modern armaments of adversaries will not deter her people from their sacred task of exerting to the utmost all efforts to conserve liberty and their territory.

"They are certain of the justice of their cause and of divine aid and mercy in event that they are required to make the supreme sacrifice.

"In the meantime", no orders for Ethiopian troops to approach our frontiers have been given. On the contrary, orders in effect since last December to keep away from the borders have been obeyed implicitly, notwithstanding repeated allegations that my soldiers are out of control.

"Embarrassing Task"

"Only recently, due to frequent statements by Italian statesmen regarding their intention to attack, orders were issued to our troops to move into the interior and concentrate at points where they would be able to repel an invasion.

"No concentrations have occurred or will occur at points where any doubt can possibly arise regarding identity of the eventual aggressor."

The emperor was asked what, in his opinion, will be the decision of the League Council, which assembled in Geneva today to consider the crisis.

"The League," he said, "has the embarrassing task of having to choose from among numerous means of peaceful settlement of international disputes stipulated by the covenant and other treaties to which both Italy and Ethiopia are parties.

"Ethiopia will not seek to impose any particular method or interpose obstacles, but will take recourse to any means of settlement the Council finds appropriate.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

test, however, was not considered likely to be made until the communist congress has ended its sessions. This government wants to see whether any further violations of the Soviet pledges are made during the remainder of the congress.

A study of official reports cabled the state department by American Ambassador William C. Bullitt at Moscow has convinced officials here that the Soviet government is open to the charge of having broken its pledges on several counts.

Stir Up Discontent.

First, it is considered liable to the charge of violating its pledges by merely permitting American communists to attend the third internationale meeting.

Secondly, it is considered to have violatied its pledges by permitting speeches and reports at the congress by American and foreign communists urging and directing the American communist party to stir up discontent among workers in this country.

Officials hold that the Soviet government's action in permitting these activities violated particularly paragraph four of the agreement which formed the basis of the understanding on which President Roosevelt agreed to extend American recognition to Societ Russia.

YOUTH IS DROWNED IN SLIPPERY ROCK

after changing his clothes, it was stated. He had not been in swimming for three years, friends said.

He was born September 12, 1911, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hamilton, who survive.

The body was brought to the Book-Leyde Mortuary in this city and prepared for burial. It was removed today to his late home, from which funeral services will take place Friday afternoon at 2:30, with interment at Thomas, Pa.

The drowning cast a pall of gloom among the campers in that vicinity. Hamilton, it was said, was very popular among his associates, and had a splendid physique, being almost six feet tall.

Navy Orders That Strike Be Ended

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The navy department has notified the New York Shipbuilding company that it must quickly settle the strike at the Camden shipbuilding yards and proceed with the construction work awarded it by the navy, secretary of the navy Swanson said today.

"We have written the New York Shipbuilding company insisting that they proceed with construction work. We have been after them now for the past six months, and work must be resumed."

Assistant secretary of the navy, Henry L. Roosevelt who was present at Swanson's press conference and who is handling the matter, said that thenavy was now negotiating with the shipping firm and hoped to bring about termination of the strike at a "reasonably early time."

LUNCHEON TODAY FOR FORMER LOCAL WOMAN

Miss Harriet M. Blanchard arrived this morning from Long Beach, Cal., for an extended visit with New Castle friends.

Before moving to the coast a number of years ago, Miss Blanchard was one of New Castle's prominent pioneer residents. That she may have an early opportunity of greeting some of these former friends, Miss Dell Davidson received a small group for luncheon today, at her home on Locust street. After a delicious luncheon of charming appointments, the guests spent the afternoon visiting.

H. L. MARVIN AND WIFE ENTERTAIN AT CAMP

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marvin of East Garfield avenue, were hosts Tuesday evening, to members of the Forty-Two Domino club at their summer camp located a short distance beyond Neshannock Falls. Approximately forty were in attendance, and at 6 o'clock, a hamburg fry was featured. All assembled about the huge bonfire, and joined in the singing of songs, and exchanging fireside stories.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Marvin proved a charming hostess to the women of the organization, when she entertained at a beautifully appointed 1 o'clock luncheon. Summer flowers were used throughout in the decorations, and during the leisure time that ensued, informal activities proved popular.

Bride-Elect Honored

A miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Rilla Rishel, King avenue, R. D. 2, on July 26, honored Miss Marjorie Cook of O'Brien avenue, whose marriage is to be an event of the early fall.

There were 30 guests present and a delightful evening of 500 and other games was provided. The ladies' prize for 500 went to Mrs. Catherine Johnston and the men's to Wilson Grimm.

Miss Cook received an assortment of lovely gifts as souvenirs of the evening.

A delicious lunch was served during the evening by Mrs. Rishel and daughters, Evelyn and Dorothy.

At Patterson Home

Miss Eleanor Hunter is here from Latrobe for a visit in the home of Miss Sara Patterson on Ray street. Another guest is Mrs. Harold Smith of Beaver Falls, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson.

Visiting Parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan M. Higgins and children of Westfield, N. Y., former residents, are here for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith, Sr., of Highland avenue.

AFTERNOON PARTY ON TENTH BIRTHDAY

Gathering at the home of Margaret Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Clement of DuShane street, Tuesday afternoon, a group of young girls helped celebrate her 10th birthday.

Games of various kinds were enjoyed on the lawn, with prizes going to Betty Weber, Dorothy Van Eman, Winifred Mann, Cathleen Angelo, Alice McCaskey and Isabel Burke. Clarabel and Betty Cope entertained with several readings and the group enjoyed watching Margaret open her many birthday packages, which revealed lovely gifts.

At luncheon time the guests were ushered into the dining room, where they found the table centered with a big cake, iced in pink and white, like appointments prevailing in the dainty menu served. Assisting Mrs. Clement were Mrs. William Vogan, Mrs. Ted Beighley, Mrs. Bert Weber and Anne Jones.

MRS. R. C. COCHRAN WILL BE NINETY-TWO

It is with interest the many friends of Mrs. Rebecca C. Cochran of 23 East street learn that she will be 92 years of age on Friday, August 2. She will observe this anniversary quietly at her home, it is announced.

Mrs. Cochran, who was born near Greenville, is the mother of four children, three of whom are located here, Mrs. Jennie Rearic of 311 East Wallace avenue, Jess L. Cochran of 113 Cochran way, Charles T. Cochran of 23 East street, and William J. Cochran of Hollyhill, Cal. Also, she has three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

HAM FRY AT PARK HONORS VISITORS

As a courtesy to two visitors in town, Miss Eleanor Hunter of Latrobe and Mrs. Harold Smith of Beaver Falls, a group of friends went to Cascade Park Tuesday evening for a ham fry at six o'clock.

There were covers for 10 at one of the long tables, prettily appointed, in the summer house. After enjoying the appetizing menu which the girls had fun preparing, the group returned to the city and spent the remainder of the evening at the home of Sara Patterson on Ray street.

True Blue Class Picnic

Thirty-five members and guests of the True Blue Bible class of the Third U. P. church motored to Lakewood Beach on Tuesday evening and had a hamburg fry.

They were seated at a table decorated with brilliant summer flowers. The serving followed an earlier period of games.

Bingo playing was one of the after-dinner diversions and the two grand prizes were awarded to Mrs. Agnes Riney and Mrs. Martha Glass.

The affair was turned into a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Riney, the former Agnes Drake, and Mrs. Glass, the former Martha Bryan, members of the class who were recently married.

Members of the committee in charge were Mrs. G. H. Colnot, Katie Brandon, Helen Book and Ann Bintrim.

L. A. B. Club Guests

An informal evening of bingo playing, was enjoyed by members of the L. A. B. club, Tuesday, in the home of William Ellgass, Delaware avenue. Those winning prizes, were Mrs. Flora Cunningham and Mrs. James McCullough.

Social chat, music and other diversions filled in the time that followed, when the hostess served a dainty menu of refreshments. She had as aides, Misses Helen Delin and Jane Shelton.

Tigers Auxiliary

Thursday morning at Cascade Park, members of the Tigers Auxiliary will enjoy a sunrise breakfast. The women will meet at the Tigers clubrooms, South Mill street, at 5:30 a. m.

KENSINGTON LUNCHEON AT MT. JACKSON HOME

Tuesday Kensington members enjoyed the delightful hospitality extended them yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. J. Davis at Mt. Jackson, when she entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon.

The table was attractively arranged in seasonal appointments, covers marking for 17 associates and the following special guests: Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw of Warren, O., Jane Reel, a sister of the hostess from Pembroke, Va., Mrs. John Miller of Mt. Jackson, Mrs. Pierce Craft and Mrs. Eugene Swisher of New Castle and Mary Wood of Sharon.

During the afternoon, the hostess was aided by Mrs. J. Moser, Mrs. Pierce Craft, Mrs. Eugene Swisher and Jane Reel in serving and all activities which took place, adding further to the afternoon's success.

Plans were made for a gathering on Tuesday, August 13, to take place at the Metzler camp near Kennedy's Mills. This will be in the form of a picnic supper, the menu to be served at 6:30 o'clock, with husbands of the women as guests. Those in charge of arrangements include Mrs. W. H. Williams, Mrs. F. L. Kelley and Mrs. W. T. Sterling, who will arrange the menu, and Mrs. Stan Treser and Mrs. Paul Weller, who will look after the transportation facilities.

JOLLIKOUSINS HONOH MEMBER AT COTTAGE

The cheerful McClelland cottage, located on the Slippery Rock creek, was the scene of a delightful affair Tuesday evening, the occasion marking a special farewell-birthday party honoring Mrs. Joseph DePuy, and put on by members of the Jollikousins Club. She will leave soon to reside in Canton, O.

After the arrival of all the guests informal pastimes that are appropriate to such a setting filled in the early moments. Later a delicious menu was served by candlelight at six o'clock, at tables cleverly decorated in tones of yellow and white, the centerpiece consisting of a huge bouquet of the season's flowers. Miniature doll babies as favors marked each place.

The evening was climaxed when Mrs. DePuy was presented with a number of gifts in remembrance of her birthday anniversary. At this time she was showered with farewell tidings that carried only the best wishes for her happiness in her new home. Cards and chat occupied the balance of the evening.

On Tuesday, Aug. 6, Mae Cromie of the Harlansburg road will entertain at the regular club meeting.

OUT OF TOWN GUESTS AT KENSINGTON PARTY

Mrs. E. Z. Eckman, of Saltsburg, Mrs. Nora Moore, of Sharon, and Mrs. William Back were visitors at a delightful assembly of the 1919 Kensington Tuesday evening, in the Winter avenue residence of Mrs. E. G. Hoover.

Bridge, 500 and bingo provided an assortment of games which proved of much interest to the group, the prizes falling to Mrs. Back for bridge, Mrs. I. A. Taylor for 500, while in bingo, winners were Mrs. James Love and Mrs. Nora Moore.

Refreshments were enjoyed by candlelight, in the dining room, the aides including the hostess' three daughters, Dorothy, Eloise and Catherine Hoover.

Plans were made for a breakfast at Cascade Park on August 13, for the next regular meeting.

Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Deloss Burnside, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Patterson, of the East Side, returned Monday evening from a trip to Bellefonte, Pleasant Gap and State college, where they visited friends and relatives.

While at Pleasant Gap, they went up to Rockview to see the state prison. Mrs. Edna Kirkwood, of Pleasant Gap, a former resident of New Castle, showed them about while there. Barring the terrible rainstorms encountered on the trip down, the folks had a very enjoyable time.

Wiener Roast

A group of boys and girls assembled at the home of Helen and Wanda Nastal on the Bryson road on the eve of July 27, and held a wiener roast. Music was provided by Steve Sewczak and Rudy Piechch of Chewton. Others were present from Volant.

Hostesses were Effie Bodziach and Helen Nastal, and they arranged the evenings program.

Deiger-Shiderly Reunion

Eighth annual reunion of the Deiger and Shiderly families will be held at the home of Arthur Shiderly on the Middlesex and Sharon road, near Bobby's corners, Saturday, August 10. A basket picnic is planned for all relatives in the connection and their friends.

ELLA VOGEL GOING TO ENGLAND SOON

Miss Ella King Vogel, of Somerset, Pa., member of the Business and Professional Women's club, and well known in New Castle, has returned to her home after attending the national B. P. W. convention at Seattle, as delegate at large from Pennsylvania. She also spoke, in the absence of Senator Borah at the Idaho products dinner.

On July 30, Miss Vogel will sail on the S. S. Britanica for England to attend the Disciples of Christ world convention. During the week of August 10, she will attend as a delegate the World Federation of Education Association at Oxford.

Following the Oxford convention, she will conduct a party on a three weeks' cruise to the northern European capitals.

Miss Vogal is a cousin of J. M. Wallace, of Boyles avenue, and is also related to Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace, of Edenburg.

BRILLIANT WEDDING IN ST. VITUS CHURCH

Before an embankment of palms and ferns which adorned the altar of St. Vitus church, the Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita solemnized one of the prettiest weddings of the summer season, Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, when he joined together in holy wedlock, Miss Elizabeth Tardelli, charming daughter of James Tardelli, of 207 Division street, and Charles Sbarro, of 22 Center street.

The ceremony, performed before an assemblage of friends and relatives of the couple, was impressive. The Rev. Fr. DeMita acted as celebrant, the Rev. Fr. Ippolito was deason, and the Rev. Fr. Alfred Henke served as sub-deacon. Nicholas Biondi, of St. Vincent, was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Frances Colao, the bride's cousin, sang the Ave Maria mass.

As the bride passed through arches, beautifully arranged, with her father, who gave her in marriage, she met the groom at the entrance of the altar. Miss Tardelli was stunning in a white taffeta gown, made entrain, trimmed with Mousseline di soi. Her veil was cap shape, caught with clusters of orange blossoms and her bouquet was of lilies of the valley, white roses and adriatum.

Miss Phyllis Cherol, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing an aqua marine chiffon gown, trimmed with pleated rushing and harmonizing accessories. She carried an armful of yellow souvenir roses. Ralph Leonard served the groom as best man. Mrs. Thomas Maciarello, the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank Maciarello and Mrs. Charles Richards were matrons of honor.

Misses Theresa Vallati, Phyllis Maciarello, Adeline Scaglione, Marie Giolio and Anna Belle Cherol were bridesmaids.

Ushers included Charles Tedesko, Pat Alfero, Frank Maciarello, Thomas Maciarello, Charles Richards, Gene Morelli, Charles Scaglione and Louis Cherol.

Following the church ceremony the briday party and guests were tendered a bountiful wedding dinner in the Castleton Hotel. Invocation was given by the Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Doerr, pastor of the St. Joseph church. Brief addresses were delivered by D. D. Valiensi, Wyatt Campbell, Mrs. Mary Conti and Mrs. Amelia Gebbia. Benediction was offered by the Rev. Fr. F. Stifter, chaplain of the New Castle hospital.

About 500 guests were present at a delightful reception Tuesday night in honor of the newlyweds. A wedding march, led by Frank Colao, featured the event. Later Mr. and Mrs. Sbarro departed for an extended honeymoon in the east. For traveling, she chose an orchid boucle suit with matching accessories. Upon returning from their honeymoon the newlyweds will be at home to their friends at 207 Division street.

Out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vallati and family, Youngstown; Mrs. Rose Retort and Mrs. Mary Constantine, Hillsville; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Russo, Youngstown; Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeFalco, Ellwood City; Mrs. Laurel DeBuono, Ellwood City; Miss Lucille Gatti, Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Josephine Giolio, Youngstown; Mrs. Nick Nacarro, Youngstown; Mrs. Angelo Capetella, Akron, and Miss Mary Marintry, Cleveland, O.

Plans will be completed at this time for a tureen dinner to be given for the members of the auxiliary in the home of Mrs. Betty Stoner, past president.

T. L. T. Club.

Miss Betty Lou Rogers was a special guest of the T. L. T. club members Tuesday evening when they entertained at a ham fry in the grove at Cascade park.

At 6:30 o'clock the evening's activities were well under way, and an appetizing menu was served by several of the women in charge. Park amusements provided diversion during the hours that followed.

Plans were formulated for a gathering of a similar nature on Tuesday, August 20.

Moorhead Reunion.

The fourth annual reunion of the descendants of James and Jane Martin Moorhead was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Moorhead, Slippery Rock, Pa., Saturday afternoon and evening, July 27.

At 6:30 a picnic supper was served to 40 guests at tables attractively arranged on the lawn. Following, a business meeting was featured with William H. Moorhead, president, in charge. It was voted that the same officers be retained for another year with William H. Moorhead, president; James W. Moorhead, vice president; Luella Moorhead, secretary and treasurer.

During the hours that followed, various types of entertainment were featured.

The 1936 reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moorhead, Slippery Rock R. D., on the last Saturday of July.

Richard Brown of Bessemer, who underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils in the Jameson Memorial hospital, has returned to his home.

SHOWS RULE BY MINORITY

ANALYZING councilmanic elections during 1933 and 1934 in 800 cities of more than 10,000 population in this country, the International City Managers' Association has made the astounding discovery that only 41 per cent of the voting population of these cities took part in the elections.

Just 60 per cent of the people eligible to vote in these 800 cities took the trouble to register, and only two-thirds of those who did register actually voted.

This thing we call popular government isn't nearly so popular as we suppose it to be. Of every five persons old enough to rule themselves, three take little interest in government whatever. It is little wonder that aspiring politicians can build huge city political machines.

An American statesman once remarked: "The people get the kind of government they deserve." And, in the face of figures given here, who is there that dare question the wisdom of this statement?

MORE PERSONS OVER 65

There were 34 per cent more persons over 65 in 1930 than in 1920. It was a phenomenal increase, and with the birth figures showing a decline, tends to show that this is becoming an old people's country.

In the United States there is better medical attention given elderly people than was the case even ten years ago. Every reader can recall some instance of an elderly person being saved by prompt and scientific action.

What worries the doctors most is the various forms of heart disease, accentuated by our rapid and nervous style of living. With the figures acting the way they are we must believe the medical fraternity is learning more about how to take care of the aged whose vital organs have been impaired.

A changed psychology about old age is helping to lengthen the life span. A healthy man at 60 feels he is scarcely more than a youth, and a woman at 70 these days scarcely admits she has passed 39, until the actual cash comes in sight for her old age pension. This bit of human frailty is a matter for jocularity, not for censure.

Strict control of immigration has played a part in making us a nation of oldsters. Racial strains prolific of children are not entering our gates. One or two children is the extent of the average modern American family.

THE DAVIS CUP STAYS IN ENGLAND

Once again the American challenge for the Davis Cup has failed. The trophy emblematic of the world's tennis championship still rests snugly on foreign soil—where it has been ever since the French team crossed the Atlantic with it in 1927.

The Americans went into the challenge round against the British with high hopes, fired by their success against the Germans. If only Austin could be turned back in both singles the cup might be recovered, even with the matchless Perry gaining his almost inevitable victories—thus "doped" the optimistic American supporters; for the veteran doubles combination of Allison and Van Ryn was over-whelmingly favored to win.

When both singles were lost Saturday, nothing but the hope of a miracle was left the challengers—the miracle being nothing less than defeat of the swashbuckling Mr. Perry. And then came the dawn—and even that miracle wouldn't bring salvation, for the doubles team succumbed to an untried but sure-hitting British duo who put the old cup under lock and key Monday for another year.

Post mortems there will be aplenty by the grandstand coaches, and criticism mayhap for use of Allison against Austin as well as in the doubles. But one grain of consolation has been the development of Budge as a top-flight tennis star. With that consolation as a starter the United States can begin building anew for a challenge that will persist until the cup is back.

THAT RUSSIAN TRADE AGREEMENT

Some time ago the State Department entered into a so-called reciprocal treaty which, it was said, would increase our exports to Russia several million dollars, with the consideration that we take an amount of imports from Russia in equal monetary value.

At that time, those who have studied the international policy of Soviet Russia and have no confidence in it, stated that Uncle Sam was preparing himself to get stung again. They remembered the glittering promises of the Reds that they would buy hundreds of millions of dollars worth of goods from us and cease their propaganda in the United States if we would only recognize Russia. Neither the increase in trade nor the decrease in communist demonstration here were noticeable after recognition was extended.

Now we have a new "agreement" with Russia in which we will virtually exchange our goods for hers. But already the mask is beginning to slip off. Economic publications representing the Moscow government are beginning to say that before we can expect any trade results from Russia we must lend the defaulting Red government a lot of money to finance the imports. It is said that we will get a billion dollars worth of trade for the loans. In the diplomatic conference for Russian recognition we were promised a half billion dollars in trade. Now we are to get twice as much as we did then, which is—nothing. We got nothing then and two times zero is still zero.

The New York Times in a special cable dispatch from Moscow quotes one Red trade journal as stating that Soviet purchases from the United States will increase, because of the trade agreement, but that the growth will be very limited until we advance Moscow some extensive bank credits.

As the old time gamblers used to say: "It's the old army game." Twenty can play as well as one. The trouble is that the twenty on the outside always play it against Uncle Sam, and they usually play it with loaded dice.

THE MAN WHO DIDN'T SHOOT

MY FRIEND was a mighty hunter. . . . He had rifles and shotguns and he hunted everything. He aimed his guns at ducks, quail, doves, rabbits and deer. When he wasn't hunting, he was fishing. And when there was nothing to hunt, he went to shooting galleries.

But I noticed a few months ago that he hadn't been hunting for a long time and I asked him why not. . . . He said it was too expensive; he couldn't afford it. . . . Then, after a few minutes, he began to talk about the last time he had gone deer hunting.

He explained that he'd gone into the mountains with a party of friends and he had been eager for the sport. . . . He could hardly wait for the next morning to be out in the dry hills looking for deer. This was the life, he said to himself. This is Real Living. . . . He didn't get any deer that first day. Didn't see one. Came home late in the day, tired and hungry, but as keen as ever for his first deer of the season. . . . The following day was like the first. . . . Long hours of hiking. Weary feet and empty stomach. No deer. . . . But about one o'clock in the afternoon, while he was sitting on a fallen tree, resting, right where he was sure he'd see a deer—IT HAPPENED.

Suddenly, in a clearing not 25 yards away from him, a fine buck appeared. He came through the trees, stopped, threw up his head, and waited. . . . And my friend threw up his gun to his shoulder and drew a bead on that fine fellow.

But he didn't press the trigger. . . . All he did was look. Stare and admire the beauty of that graceful creature. . . . Stare and suddenly find himself thinking: "What am I doing here, anyway? Why should I kill that deer to get myself a piece of meat that I don't really need? He'll have more fun living than I can get out of killing him?" . . . So he put down his gun and whispered, "On your way big boy!"—and went home for the second day without his deer.

Since then my friend hasn't hunted a deer, hasn't shot at a deer, hasn't killed a deer. . . . He says it's too expensive for a poor man's purse.

LIFE IS A HARD SCHOOL TO PASS IN

You may be greatly distressed because a son or a daughter in school is not making the progress you desire and expect.

Unfortunately, you think your child among the brightest in school. You want that child to be numbered among those who stand highest.

There are always those who carry off the honors by being top students. But have you ever observed that those who learn the most quickly are just as quick in forgetting their knowledge?

Many a "flash" student is never heard of after school days are over.

It is not a qualification for good judgment, to be able to learn in a "flash" and forget it over night.

If your son or your daughter possesses the faculty for thinking through problems and arriving at sensible conclusions, he or she is more likely to be a success in after life than the one who is merely distinguished for marks.

Too often those who learn easily get into the habit of taking up subjects that they can easily comprehend, and avoiding the things that require time.

They are accustomed to doing things fast and have no taste for studies that require considerable time spent in thought and the use of reasoning power.

Having passed in school with little effort, they expect to get through life easily. But it just doesn't work out that way.

GOD AND MRS. GRUNDY

A visitor spent the week end in New Canaan, Connecticut and while looking over the reading matter in his host's home, picked up a copy of "The Lion of St. Mark," a periodical issued by a church parish of that town. This interested him for this is what he found in the magazine:

MRS. GRUNDY

(Ancient Version)

They eat, they sleep, they work, they plod,
They go to church on Sunday,
And many are afraid of God,
And more of Mrs. Grundy.

(Modern Version)

They eat, they sleep, they jazz, they nod,
Some go to church on Sunday;
And some are still afraid of God,
But none of Mrs. Grundy.

AUTOS WRECK BUILDINGS

According to Dr. E. E. Free many of the old stone and brick buildings of Europe are unable to stand up under the conditions of the new age. Some have collapsed and others are in a dangerous condition due to the vibrations created by the passing of heavily loaded motor trucks. A tower in Tours, France, believed to be nearly a thousand years old is a tumbled ruin, engineers are working to save St. Paul's Cathedral in London, and heavy traffic has been barred from the neighborhood of many of the older buildings of Oxford university.

THAT UNSWATTED FLY

A lonesome fly got in our house
One day not long ago.
The family armed itself at once
And started for the foe.

Potato-mashers, frying-pans,
And baseball bats we got,
And broomsticks—and we started in
With might and main to swat.

We smashed three good-sized mirrors
And tore down the chandelier;
We broke an antique heirloom vase
And wrecked the jardiniere.

It seems a shame to stop and think
What father's got to buy;
We swatted everything we could—
But didn't swat the fly.

TODAY'S STORYETTE

It seems that a lawyer made his way to the ends of a ditch where the street gang was working, and called to Timothy O'Toole.

"Who's wantin' me?" inquired a heavy voice.

"Mr. O'Toole," the lawyer asked "did you come from Castlebar, County Mayo?"

"I did thot."

And was your mother named Bridget, and your father Michael?"

"They wor."

"It is my duty then," said the lawyer, "to inform you, Mr. O'Toole, that our aunt Mar has died in Chicago leaving you an estate of $60,000.

There was short silence below, and then a lively commotion.

"Are you coming, Mr. O'Toole?" the lawyer called down.

"In wan minute," was the bellowed response, "as soon as I finish lickin' the foreman."

The World At A Glance

Tighten Up Relief Plan.
No Aid For Those Off Relief.
May Be Shortage For Needy.

Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th street

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, July 31.—Relief works have not been going forward. But it is not for political reasons. It is for reasons of disorganization, and bewilderment as to direction, as well as disagreement of disbursal between Secretary Ickes and Administrator Hopkins.

The administration seems to be in a serious situation over its entire relief program. The president may have to seek the biggest executive that he can obtain and turn the whole matter over to him—if it is not already too late.

That is the opinion of some anxious Democrats outside of Washington.

CHAOS

Persons are being shoved off direct relief, supposedly to work relief or private work.

There is little or no work relief, for the government has not got its jobs into hand.

And private corporations are not employing additional men. With the exception of agriculture, this is not the time of year for any large re-employment.

Besides, capital remains hesitant. It is not certain what the trend in government is.

In the meantime, the large centers at least go toward autumn with thousands of persons actually without definite subsistence.

And persons being shoved off relief in the northwest, thus forced to work as farm laborers, will return to relief. Farm labor jobs last only a few months.

MONEY GOES WHERE?

Some future congress may ask, "Where did the money go?"

It is going.

A large part of the relief money is going to government departments in supplement to their congressional appropriations, such as army, navy, interior, etc Precious little of that money seeps through to needy persons. Much of it goes to contractors.

And difficulty is being had in having contractors maintain wage scales.

In one shipyard at least work has been tied up for weeks because the corporation refuses to meet demands of workers. The government has even been lackadaisical in effecting a settlement.

If the administration had been ready with plans for projects, there would have been work

But then, again, the old question arises: If a project really helps the needy, if money should go to useful things, would that not be an intrusion on private business?

SHORTAGE

Actually, even with the $4,880,000,000 appropriated, there may be a shortage for the needy.

The regular departments already have taken so much of the money that it will not piece out for all the unemployables even at the minimum sum upon which the government decided they could exist. That sum still is objected to by organized labor as below a subsistence level.

The sum is $1,140 a year per head of a family employed, but that sum includes materials, too. And even that is more than the administration has left to spend.

WHAT, THEN?

If, when winter comes men face dire straits, in spite of evident prosperity in heavily mechanized industry, then what is likely to occur?

States will forget about states' right and descond upon Washington for more money than the government has.

Today's Yesterdays—July 31, 146 B. C.—Acting upon instructions from the Roman senate, Gen. Scipio Aemilianus destroyed the great city of Carthage with its 700,000 population, to wreak revenge upon a dead man—Hannibal!

Although the Carthaginian senate had withdrawn its support from Hannibal as he marched victoriously along the road to Rome, causing him to turn back, Scipio was ordered to wipe the city off the earth when it finally fell into Roman hands 37 years after Hannibal died.

July 31, 1667—The Dutch swapped New Netherlands (New York) for 54,291 square miles of jungle.

By treaty signed in Breda, Netherlands, between England, France, Netherlands and Denmark, France acquired clear title to Canada, England secured New Netherlands and New Jersey, and the Dutch got Surinam (now Dutch Guiana) for surrendering New Netherlands. The Danes got nothin', being the littlest.

July 31, 1777—A 19-year-old aristocrat was made a major-general in the Revolutionary army of the U. S. by the congress.

This was Marie Jean du Motier, Marquis de Lafayette. He became interested in serving as an unpaid volunteer in the Revolutionary army through the Duke of Gloucester, brother of Britain's King George III.

25 Years Ago Today—The first arrest was made by means of radio.

Suspicions of Capt. Kendall of the S. S. Montrose, wirelessed to Scotland Yard, caused the arrest at Quebec of "Mr. Robinson" and his effeminate-looking "son". This, of course, was Dr. Harvey Crippen, M. D., and his young secretary, fleeing from London, where the remains of the doctor's wife had been discovered in the cellar of his home.

July 31, 1923—The German mark was quoted at 1,000,000 to $1, but that was only the beginning of the inflation.

First of All—The first U. S. patent was granted 145 years ago today—to the wrong person! It was given to one Samuel Hopkins for a process of making pot and pearl ashes. The process was the invention of his wife.

Writing Wrongs—You're making a mistake if you believe—

That Shakspere (we insist on sticking to that form of spelling because we believe it's correct) said "Comparisons are odious."

He does put "Comparisons are odorous" into Much Ado About Nothing but the other phrase, the most popular form of the expression, isn't his.

That Henry Ford (whose birthday was Tuesday) was the first mass producer of automobiles.

He wasn't. R. E. Olds first had the idea that autos should be produced on a large scale for sale at a price within reach of any family. He produced 1400 in one year, and other manufacturers wondered how he would sell them!

IF LOVE BE NOTHING BUT A WHIM

If love be nothing but a whim,
'Tis done when fancy dies.
Her charms cannot recapture him
Though longingly she tries.
For this is certain, maid and man
(Let not yourselves be fooled)
On earth there's nothing colder than
A love that once has cooled.

When laughing lip and twinkling eye
Have lost their power to charm,
He'll seek another, by and by
To walk with arm in arm.
So haste you not to give away
Your trusting heart to him,
Lest you may find his love some day
Was but a passing whim.

For fancy has an errant way
While love is staunch and true;
'Twill glimpse a dozen maidens gay
Where love sees only you.
But this you'll find when shadows grim
And troubles round you fall,
If love be nothing but a whim,
It isn't love at all.

Dinner Stories

HOW TRUE

"I hear old Sam Twister has received a sentence of 12 months' imprisonment."

"What a terrible blow for his wife. However will she manage to carry on with the business?"

"Oh, the plucky woman is advertising it for sale, stating that the owner has been compelled to move into larger premises."

NO WONDER!

"Have you ever speculated on why you are so popular in your neighborhood?

"No, except that I told my neighbors that I always played the saxophone when I got lonely."

FISHING'S BAD

He (after being turned down): I'm not worrying; there's a lot more fish in the sea.

She: Yes, and if nobody's got a better line than you have they'll all stay there.

ON THE SPOT

Office Boy (nervously): "Please, sir, I think you're wanted on the 'phone."

Employer: "You think! What's the good of thinking?"

"Well, sir, the voice at the other end said, 'Hello, is that you, you old idiot!"

EGO

Parson: My dear, let's hope your husband won't be the type to look sideways at other women.

Actor's Bride: Oh, but he will. He knows he's got a perfect profile.

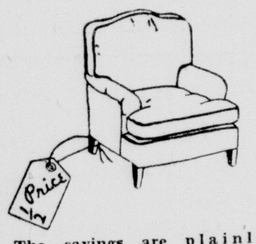

Americanism: Talking glibly of liberty; putting our heads in a yoke and calling it security.

Works Projects Policies Are Set

Conference Results In Decision For Procedure In District 14

FOLLOW U. S. PLAN ANNOUNCES DOWNIE

District 14 of the Works Progress Administration will adopt the same policy in the allocation of funds for materials and equipment on works projects that has been set down by Washington. This decision was arrived at on Tuesday at an executive staff meeting held in the office of J. Vale Downie, director.

The ratio of money allotted for materials and use of equipment is slightly more than four per cent. In substance this means that each community is entitled to four per per cent of the total cost of all of their projects for the use of material purchases or use of equipment. This does not mean that each project will be limited to this ratio, but that the sum of all the projects submitted from each community will need to satisfy the condition.

The adoption of this plan makes it necessary for each community to develop its own works progress program, employing mostly unskilled labor and little equipment or material requiring money for purchase to earn a credit under the four per cent allowance for other projects where larger expenses for materials and equipment is unavoidable.

Because Harrisburg has said that this ratio will positively not be increased, it is the wish of Mr. Downie that no community delay submitting its projects in the hope of finding the ratio increased at a later date.

A number of executive appointments have been made by Mr. Downie, but the announcement of them is being withheld until confirmation is received from Harrisburg.

Twenty-five projects have been approved thus far this week, which will provide approximately 150 man-years employment. A staff of 20 engineers working under H. Leroy Stewart, is concentrating night and day on project development. Projects are sent to Harrisburg and then to Washington, which indicates a delay of about four weeks from submission before they are started.

Croton Methodists Planning Big Time

Annual Picnic Will Take Place At Castle Beach, Thursday Afternoon And Eve

One of the big features of the annual picnic of the Croton avenue M. E. Sunday school, on Thursday afternoon and evening, at Castle Beach, will be a well balanced program of sports.

The climax will be the annual mushball game between the married men and the single men, which has been won for the past two years by the married men, and they are confident of continuing their winning stride again this year.

The different families will bring well filled baskets, which will be set out upon the tables by the table committee, so that all will have plenty to eat.

The sport program during the afternoon, will find a kiddies crawl, peanut scramble, and various dashes, for tiny tots up to five, boys and girls, 6 to 9, 10 to 12, 12 to 14, 15 to 21, while there will be a variety of events for the ladies and men, which should provoke much interest and merriment.

Arrests In Weirton Fail To Halt Hunt For Counterfeiters

Two men arrested in Weirton, W. Va., last Sunday as alleged passers of counterfeit money are not the two whom federal operatives, with the help of city and state police here, have been trailing as a result of counterfeit activities locally, Postmaster Richard A. Steen reported today.

"The counterfeit group operating into New Castle comes from Youngstown or Cleveland, and the Weirton men are not the ones we're after," the postmaster said.

Steen repeated his warning issued earlier this week for merchants to "watch out" for the bad bills. He said there was every indication that more $10 counterfeits were passed out here. Two turned up at a bank.

The counterfeit activities here were described by Steen as the heaviest in a long time.

Two Supreme Court Judges Will Be Elected

Each Party Entitled To Name One For Vacancy, Says Margiotti

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 31.—Pennsylvania's supreme court election contest today became a free-for-all party nominations at the primary which will virtually assure major party candidates election in a "dead heat" balloting in November.

At the same time, it was expected Gov. George H. Earle, vacationing in New York, would name H. Edgar Barnes, who retired today as secretary of revenue, before the end of the week to the court vacancy caused by the death of Justice Alexander Simpson, Jr.

Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, in a two-fold ruling, decided that while two vacancies will exist on the appellate bench at the fall election, each party may place only one candidate in nomination. At the same time, he formally advised Governor Earle that any appointment to the Simpson post would expire January 1 and must necessarily be filled at the forthcoming election.

MILK DEALERS FINED

MERCER, July 31.—Nine Mercer County Milk Dealers were assessed a fine of $25 and costs by Justice Thomas McClain here today at a hearing which involved violation of the order of the milk conrtol board of the state on price cutting.

Could Use 400 More Troopers

State Police Head Says Crime In State Would Be Reduced

PREVENTING CRIME WOULD BE AIM

By JOHN W. SCOTZIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, July 31.—Crime in Pennsylvania could be reduced 50 per cent if the state police force was augmented by about 400 more hard - riding, straight - shooting troopers.

The authority for this claim is Maj. Lynn G. Adams, veteran head of the force, who explained in an interview today that his department is heavily taxed in detecting and apprehending criminals, with the result that it is unable to concentrate properly on crime prevention. The state police now numbers 390 men, each faced with varied police work, he said.

Could Reduce Crime

"If it would be possible for me to keep 200 patrols (400 men) on the highways at all times, I could reduce crime in Pennsylvania over 50 per cent," Major Adams asserted.

"With our limited personnel we are at present compelled to devote 85 per cent of our time to detection, apprehension and trial of criminals,' he said. "But if we could devote that much time to patroling the highways, the probabilities are that 50 per cent of the cases in which we must detect or apprehend criminals would not occur.

"It has always been my contention that it is best to prevent crime than to have it materialize. While certainty of detection, apprehension or conviction plays a large part in police work, it doesn't solve the problem. What we need now is more visible power of the 'big stick.'

Are Undermanned

"I don't look for any great reduction in crime because police forces are all undermanned. I believe that we are getting the maximum amount of inhibitive effect now from the detection and apprehension of criminals."

Virtually every police agency in the United States, including the federal force, has less than the required "man power" to combat crime, he said.

Lack of public interest in police work and the citizens' failure to demand increased personnels have caused this condition, he charged. Major Adams added:

"Criminals are egoists and if they don't see the 'big stick' they believe they will get away free. They always think they are smarter than the man who has been caught."

Mother Of Victim Will Make Plea For Mercy For Accused

Mother Of Mrs. Alice Dudley Sherman Wants To Spare Parents Of Killer

(International News Service)

WORCESTER, Mass., July 31.—The mother of the victim in the latest "American tragedy" slaying will fight for the life of the man accused.

State police said today the mother of Alice Dudley Sherman thinks Newell Paige Sherman, who allegedly tipped his wife from a canoe, deserves the electric chair, but she wants to spare his parents.

"If necessary I'll go to the governor to save him," she was quoted as saying.

At the same time police revealed that Sherman had suggested to his wife that she take poison, die by drowning or go over an embankment in an automobile. Three days before the fatal night on Lake Singletary, according to a story told state police by a relative of the dead wife, Sherman tried to lure his wife out into the water beyond her depth, knowing she could not swim.

Mary Boland To Fight Suit

Screen Actress Is Sued For $150,000 For Alienation Of Nephew's Affections

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., July 31.—Ill luck continued today to follow the footsteps of Mary Boland, screen actress, as she was made defendant in a $150,000 alienation of affections suit brought by Elizabeth Ross Kummer, wife of George Bernard Kummer, film studio employe and nephew of Miss Boland.

The actress is charged with enticing Kummer away from his wife's home last March. Up to that time, Mrs. Kummer avers in her complaint, she and Kummer lived "blissfully" together.

Mrs. Kummer charged Miss Boland with "wrongfully intending to injure" her and to "deprive her of her husband's protection, society and support." The actress, it was charged, "wilfully, wickedly and maliciously gained the affections of Kummer, induced, persuaded and enticed him away from the plaintiff and alienated his affections."

The Kummers, who formerly resided in Detroit were brought out here, according to Miss Boland, "so that a home might be made for my mother."

"Never have I had anything to do in the relations of Mr. and Mrs. Kummer, except at their direct request," said the film star. "Needless to say, this suit has grieved me deeply. It is a masterpiece of ingratitude. I intend to fight it to the last ditch."

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Congress was embroiled in a lively partisan row over the new tax bill today, with indications that the measure devised by the House Ways and Means committee may split Democratic ranks.

Republican leaders in both Senate and House leaped into the fray with biting deunuciation of the inheritance, gift, indivdual income and corporation taxes.

A group of administration Democrats caustically criticized the House measure because it went beyond the so-called "share the wealth" program bared in President Roosevelt's message.

Morgenthau To Answer Inquiries

While the word battle was going on, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau prepared to go before the Senate Finance committee to answer questions.

After President Roosevelt had conferred with Morgenthau and other administration officials, it was emphasized that Morgenthau would carry no instructions from the White House. Nor was he expected to make any recommendations on behalf of the treasury.

Seven Republican members of the House Ways and Means committee joined in signing a minority report, marked by one of the most bitter attacks yet made upon President Roosevelt by a group of Republicans.

Charge Politics Played

Mr. Roosevelt was charged with playing politics in sending his tax message to Congress. The Republican minority asserted that the president sent the message at a time when his popularity was on the wane. They also declared that he sought to undermine the "soak the rich" and "share the wealth" advocates.

"That the bill is nothing but a political gesture seems to be universally conceded," said the Republican minority report.

"That it will fail to raise any appreciable amount of revenue cannot be denied.

Only Trivial Sum

"If this bill serves no other useful purpose, it will at least demonstrate to the country that the extravagant and wasteful expenditures of the administration cannot be met by merely 'soaking the rich.' Although it proposes rates which border on the point of actual confiscation, its proponents estimate that it will produce only $270,000,000 revenue.

"This amount would pay the running expenses of the government for less than two weeks, and it falls $3,305,000,000 short of meeting the deficit for the last fiscal year. Even as a redistribution of wealth measure, it would provide but $2.25 for each of our 120,000,000 people."

Last Day To Save Discount On Taxes

Rush Of Eleventh Hour Taxpayers At County Treasurer's Office Today

Office of County Treasurer William O. Pitts was crowded today with 11th hour taxpayers, anxious to save the five per cent discount on county taxes, which goes off today. Receipts of the office yesterday amounted to $24,000, and for the two previous days $60,000. Payments made yesterday were practically all on homes. The county treasurer's office will be open tonight until 9 o'clock to give taxpayers a last chance to save the discount.

County Treasurer Pitts reports that collections this year have been better than last, which would seem to indicate that more people are employed, although the relief rolls do not show much change. Few have yet taken advantage of the opportunity to pay their delinquent taxes, less the interest and penalties.

News Briefs From City Hall

A small boy named Vanertree set out yesterday from Scotland Lane to see the circus. When he did not come home police were notified. They combed the city and at 4:45 a. m. the nine year old lad was found by a policeman in Long avenue and was taken home in a cruiser car.

Howling dogs have cost the city considerable in gasoline. Last night the police had to go to Greenwood avenue and West Washington street and also to the 100 block in North Jefferson street. A barking or howling dog a night is considered a nuisance.

Cruiser car operatives have been notified to watch gardens in Butler avenue, one near the city line having been damaged last night. Sometime ago police secured information concerning the Mable street garden destruction but the owners did not wish to prosecute.

Elves Brooks, colored, South Jefferson street, arrested Sunday night on a charge of suspicion after city cruiser car operatives found he had removed his shoes and entered the home of colored people in Home street, was set free today, by Mayor Mayne, when the residents did not carry the matter farther.

Wind Blowing Away Limestone Dressing On Cascade Street

Money spent for a top dressing of crushed limestone on the stone foundation of Cascade street will soon be a total loss unless oil is placed on the street. The limestone is crushing into a fine powder, which is blown away every time a car passes over the street. In some places the stone foundation is already bare, and it is only a question of a short time until the whole street will be in the same condition. Cascade street was an RWD project and was in first-class shape when the top dressing was applied. As the street makes a short cut from East Washington street at Cascade Park to Croton, there is a large amount of travel over it since it was improved.

Pottery Pushes Plans For Picnic

Busy as the Shenango Pottery is at the present time there will be no china ware made on Saturday, August 3. The plant will be shut down for the day for the employes to enjoy the picnic the plant is holding in Cascade park.

From the program which is being prepared it is evident that the pottery workers will have a real day of it. Sports, rides on the attractions, dancing, swimming and the other recreations offered by Cascade park will be utilized to the full and if the weather is fair at all the pottery workers and their families will be out to the last man.

WEST SIDE Y. P. B.

West Side Y. P. B., taught by Mrs. W. G. Wilkins, will enjoy a tureen dinner at noon Thursday at Castle Beach. They will meet at Mrs. Wilkins' home at 10:30 a. m. from where transportation will be furnished.

Roosevelt's Tax Policy Assailed

Tax Economist Says Taxation Must Fail Unless Expenses Are Cut

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Organized business today transferred its campaign against President Roosevelt's tax policy to the Senate Finance committee.

Noel Sargent, of New York, tax economist of the National Association of manufacturers branded the president's policy and the $270,000,000 House Ways and Means committee bill as "unjust and unsound".

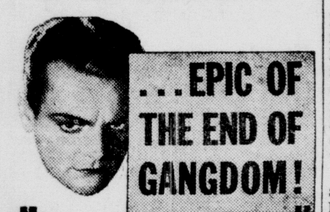

He declared any policy of taxation must fail unless the government cuts its expenditures.

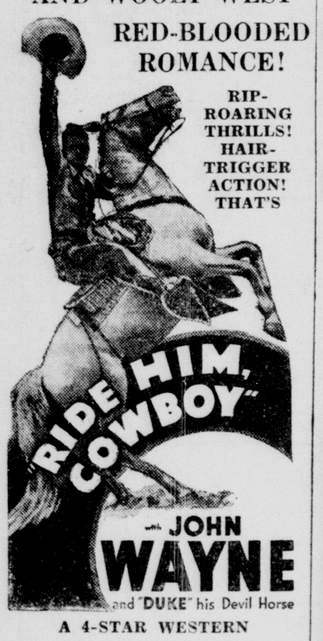

In preparation for its drive to pass the tax bill in the House this week, the House Ways and Means committee filed its formal report.

FAY SCHOOL PLANS FOR ANNUAL REUNION

Plans have been projected for the second annual runion of Fay school, which will take place on Thursday, August 29. Further details will be announced later.

James B. Watson is president of the school association and is busy making arrangements and expects to have a fine program lined up for the day.

Appointment Of West Is Hailed

Conciliating Manner Will Make Undersecretary Valuable Official

RELIEF PROJECTS ARE NOT MOVING

Central Press
Washington Bureau
1900 S. Street

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Former Congressman Charles West of Granville (O.), recently appointed to the post of under-secretary of the interior, is one of those individuals whom everyone likes.

He is affable, accommodating; above all he is diplomatic.

Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes ardently is liked by some folks, also, but not by everyone. Ickes can be affable and accommodating when he feels like it, but occasionally, and not infrequently, apparently he doesn't feel like it. And above all he is undiplomatic.

West can disagree with a vis-a-vis so pleasantly that the latter is grouchy.

IT'S HIS TEMPERMENT

There are political observers who say that Ickes is in a difficult position because he is a Republican serving under a Democratic administration.

That is not it, however; it is a matter of temperament.

To be sure, he is at outs with Democratic National Chairman and Postmaster General James A. Farley, on the ground that Farley has tried to dictate interior departmental appointments and PWA financial allowances.

But he likewise is at outs with Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, because he wants to annex the forestry service to the interior department, taking it away from the agriculture department; whereas Wallace wants forestry to remain agricultural. And Wallace is a Republican—a progressive one, like Ickes.

AT OUTS WITH HOPKINS

Particularly is Ickes at outs with Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins (a non-partisan), over the allocation of monies from President Roosevelt's 4,880,-million-dollar work-relief fund.

Hopkins' theory is that the essential thing is to create jobs—useful ones, if they can be invented, but jobs, anyway, to get cash into circulation.

Ickes insists that the jobs must produce something worth having.

If there is graft Hopkins is in favor of punishing it. Ickes is in favor of preventing any possibility of it, beforehand. This takes time. Hopkins opposes wasting any. Prevention of graft isn't waste, according to Ickes.

NOT MOVING

The result of this friction is that the 4,880-millions are not moving.

Frank C. Walker, New York banker and close personal friend of President Roosevelt, was introduced into the situation when the 4,880-million-dollar fund still was young, in the hope that he would serve as an effective referee, at the head of the Division of Applications and Information.

But Walker, completely flabbergasted, neither has any influence of his own nor authority either over Ickes or Hopkins.

The 4,880-million-dollar fund is tied up tight, in short.

Good, bad or indifferent, the plan hangs fire because Ickes and Hopkins are 50-50 and Walker can't break the deadlock.

ICKES IS FEARED

What the administration desires is clear enough.

It wants the 4,880-millions spent, as Administrator Hopkins wants the fund spent, but is afraid of Secretary Ickes; he is too formidable to be safely antagonized so utterly as to make him resign, point blank, from the cabinet.

Maybe Undersecretary Charles West can manage him.

Maybe not, likewise.

It is common talk that West was not Ickes' choice for his undersecretaryship.

Ickes is not easily reconcilable to what he is opposed to initially.

Still, former Congressman West has a great reputation as a liaison officer—for bringing conflicting elements together.

On Court House Hill

County Treasurer William O. Pitts reports collections amounting to $30,000 yesterday. This makes the second day during which $30,000 has been collected. Yesterday's collections did not include any large corporations, coming wholly from property owners, which was an encouraging feature. This is the last day on which taxes can be paid less the five per cent discount. Treasurer Pitts has arranged to keep his office open until 9 o'clock tonight to give eleventh hour payers a chance.

Vacation of a section of road near the residence of James R. Elder on the New Castle-New Wilmington road, is recommended in a report of viewers, Attorney Homer C. Drake, T. B. Wagner, and Albert Tresser. The section to be vacated was rendered useless, by a change in the road.

County officials received their semi-monthly pay yesterday, amounting to $4,168.14 from the general fund and $567.50 from the poor fund.

Will of the late Frank J. Fisher of this city, has been probated at the register and recorder's office. Decedent left his property equally to his three daughters, Mary E. Staley, Esther V. Earl and Hazel G. Fisher. Executors are M. K. Staley and Gerald Earl.

In addition to repairs to be made on the Grant street bridge, the county commissioners will repair the South Mill street bridge. Some of the block, with which the cartway is paved, have become loose. The floor will be treated with a coat of hot tar, in order that all the cracks may be sealed.

In the estate of the late William G. Dunn, in which an accounting by the executrix for rents collected has been asked, a rule granted has been extended until the first Monday of September. It was stated in the petition asking for the extension that plans for distribution are under way and that there will likely be a satisfactory disbursement by September.

Roland R. Peden, owner of property on the Youngstown road, near the Scotland school in Union township, has presented a petition to court, asking that viewers be appointed to assess damages to his property resulting from a change in the road. He claims that a sidewalk has been raised which causes the water to run into the cellar of his home, that trees have been destroyed and some of his land taken. He asks for $4000. Judge Hildebrand has appointed Attorney Roy Mercer, Alexander Main and George Hettenbaugh as viewers.

Real estate owners are looking for a substantial reduction in school taxes, when the new bills recently signed by the governor, become operative. The bills make an amendment to the school code, providing that at least $900 of every elementary teacher's salary shall be paid by the state. It also provides for an appropriation of $25,000,000 for this purpose. It will not effect this year's taxes, but is expected to cause a reduction next year. Owners of real estate, because of an outdated and most unjust system of taxation in this state, are forced to pay practically the entire cost of all local government and public education. This means an insufferable tax load for property owners, and all kinds of fiscal difficulties to the state's municipalities and school districts, because of the inability of property owners to pay the costs.

The legislation passed is designed to partly alleviate these undesirable conditions. Much credit is due the Tax Justice League for getting the legislation through. The league, organized in practically every county in the state, had a strong lobby at Harrisburg during the legislative session. It will now be up to the school directors in the various districts to see that school taxes are reduced.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m., July 30, two arrest on charge as follows: Suspicion 1 and violating traffic regulation 1.

It has been several weeks since Mayor Charles B. Mayne issued a castor oil sentence, the reason being that practically everyone of the persons who formerly were daily defendants before Hizzoner have either placed liquor on the taboo list or they have left town.

It is a well known fact that no persons are more observing than police officers. Among those who See All, Hear All and Speak No Evil is Grove Syling, the good natured sergeant at police headquarters. While motoring recently he read a sign: "Handcuff for Sheriff!"

City of New Castle has been enjoying good health according to Miss Myra Nixon, clerk to Health Officer, Dr. William L. Steen. No smallpox has been found here for years and typhoid is being stamped out in this section. Only a few cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever have been reported.

There is no fire whistle here by which volunteer firemen can be notified in case a big fire breaks out. According to persons versed with fire conditions, a plan could be arranged whereby a telephonic message could be sent all volunteers simultaneously.

John L. Street, engineer, has been employed by the city of New Castle to work on plans for projects that the city wants the WPA to approve and put through. The engineer will be paid $40.00 per week, according to councilmanic action.

Foresees End Of Direct Relief

Jones Predicts Work Relief Plans Will Bring Change In State

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 31.—Direct relief will end in Pennsylvania and the nation within 60 days if the president's $4,000,000,000 works program hits full stride according to a prediction left here today by Edward N. Jones, state works progress administrator.

Meeting informally with city and council officials to speed the works program, Jones explained he hoped to find jobs for the heads of all families now on the relief rolls. All employables will be given works relief jobs, he said, and unemployables will be transferred to the care of local poor board officials.

Jones said any change in the project wage rates which have been established must be made in Washington. Labor leaders have threatened strike if the proposed "security" wage is paid instead of prevailing wage rates.

Washington has already approved $2,000,000 in WPA projects for Pennsylvania and between $9,000,000 and $10,000,000 more are waiting approval, he said. Jones again urged submission of more projects for "white collar" workers and women.

MARRIED AT MERCER

MERCER, July 31.—Dr. Leslie Mountford, pastor of the Second United Presbyterian church, officiated Tuesday at the wedding of Thomas Shelar, of New Castle, and Alberta Harrison, of Leesburg.

Night Club Owner Is Held For Court

GROVE CITY, July 31.—On the testimony of an 18-year-old waitress, Chris Page, local night club owner will face grand jury action in September, charged with assualt with intent to commit a serious offense. Page was bound over to court after a protracted hearing before Squire A. W. Madge here. Bail was set at $1,000 and was furnished.

The girl, Mrs. Mary Tomski, testified that Page attempted to attack her on two occasions, the evening of July 4 and again on July 8, after which she resigned her position.

Her husband, a miner out of employment as the result of an injury testified at the hearing, as did two waitresses and the bartender at Page's night club, who were introduced by the defense. Although the defense attempted to show the waitress had threatened Page as the result of an altercation over a discrepancy in the cash-register, Squire Madge held that the evidence was sufficient to hold the night club owner for the grand jury.

HOME COMING DAY

GROVE CITY, Pa., July 31.—Plans for the Homecoming Day at New Hope church were announced today, with former pastors scheduled to conduct a series of services Sunday afternoon and evening in the church near here.

At the first service of the day, set for 1:30 p. m. a history of the congregation will be read. Rev. I. K. McDeavitt will conduct communion at 2:30, assisted by Rev. S. W. Young. A young peoples' meeting at 7:30 will feature an adress by Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, and Rev. H. E. Kauffman will preach the concluding sermon.

U. S. Diplomat Watches Soviet

Bullitt Informed Of Concern Over Activities Of Communists

PROBE EFFORTS TO STIR TROUBLE HERE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 31.—American Ambassador William C. Bullitt at Moscow has beeen notified by the state department of this government's concern over activities of the third Communist Internationale Congress with respect to the United States, it was learned today.

Bullitt has not yet been instructed to lodge any protest, but the department informed him it expects him to watch the proceedings closely and cable full reports on action which might tend to be in conflict with the Soviet government's promise to this nation to prohibit propaganda against this country.

The state department move to check up on the Soviet pledges was prompted by submission of a report to the third internationale congress directing the American Communist party to stir up dissension among workers in this country as well as by open propaganda aimed at the United States.

The Soviet government, in one of the main agreements on which American recognition of the Soviet regime was based, made a solemn promise to "prevent the activities on its territory of any organization or group or of representatives or of officials of any organization or group which has as an aim the overthrow of or the bringing about by force any change in the political or social order the whole or any part of the United States."

Bathing Beaches Must Pay State Amusement Tax

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 31.—Bringing swimming pools and bathing beaches under the amusement tax act, the department of revenue today opened a drive to enforce the cigarette, amusement, documentary and stock transfer taxes.

Applications for tax permits were being mailed today to the pool and beach proprietors, the department announced The tax, it was pointed out, will apply "when a charge is made, or annual dues, membership fee, or other compensation collected."

Nineteen million cigarette tax stamps are available here for shipment on short notice, the department stated. To date, 56,000,000 stamps have been sold to cigarette distributors in the state.

Roving investigators have been instructed to report violations of any phase of the act immediately to Harrisburg.

THERE'S A "PICK-ME-UP" in Old Golds, so smokers tell us. But it's a "pick-me-up" without a "plop-me-down." It perks up the spirits without jolting the nerves. Old Gold's pleasant stimulation is due to the finer character of its tobacco. Selected for extreme mildness, this prime leaf exerts a kindly influence on the nerves and spirits.

FRIGHTENED TO DEATH

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., July 31.—The roar of escaping gas from a high pressure line frightened Lawrence Bifano, 15, of Nansen, south of here, to death, Elk county authorities were informed Tuesday by Dr. H. M. Cleveland.

Stricken with terror, the youth died instantly when a lumber truck on which he was riding with his brother, George, passed over the gas line and broke it, according to the physician. Coroner S. McCabe, of Elk County, is investigating.

REPORT WINDBER EPIDEMIC IS SUBSIDING

Strange Malady Grips Community

State In Battle To Halt Malady Resembling Sleeping Sickness

OVER HUNDRED PERSONS AFFECTED

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., July 31.—Physicians today reported a strange malady with symptoms similar to those of sleeping sickness which has already claimed 108 victims of the Windber district was subsiding.

Dr. W. B. Fetcho, Somerset county medical director, said he believed the situation was under control and that a falling off of new victims was imminent. The first case was reported last Thursday and the number grew steadily as the malady spread from Windber to Central City, Cairnbrook and Ashtola, all within 12 miles of Windber.

Similar To Sleeping Sickness.

Victims at first report headaches and then suffer nausea and fever. Although the illness has not been definitely diagnosed, Dr. W. S. Wheeler, chief of staff of the Windber hospital, said the symptoms were similar to those of encephalitis or sleeping sickness. Dr. Fechto said he was convinced none of the victims suffered any after effects.

The seven persons first stricken have been released from the Windber hospital and the other victims were kept quarantined in their homes. The disease spread following the death of Andrew Toth, 13, a few days after he went swimming in a flood-polluted stream here. An autopsy revealed death resulted from inflammation of the brain.

The state health department's mobile laboratory has been dispatched here from Harrisburg to make the necessary tests and assist in establishing control measures. Dr. Samuel J. Dickey of the state health department was assigned to investigate.

Mussolini Waiting?

England Building.

Why Japan Advances.

Match This, Mr. Swope.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

THE LONDON TIMES and Universal Service announce a clash between Ethiopians and Italians, twenty Ethiopians and forty Italians killed, a stream supplying the Italian camp turned in a new direction and the Italians compelled to retreat.

Rome "has no information" on this incident. Perhaps Mussolini, who knows that war should supply only good news, is waiting to add something such as:

"Air bombardment of Addis Ababa has inflicted swift retribution for the killing of forty Italians."

ENGLAND APPARENTLY thinks something is about to happen and something unpleasant. She will spend seven hundred and fifty million dollars on more fighting ships. The "secret plans" will include 12 battleships, 33 cruisers, 3 destroyers, 21 new submarines and 3 aircraft carriers. One hundred and thirty is the total of new warships to be built by the British.

All this Britain thinks she needs to keep open her sea lanes for food supplies, that her islands may not be starved, and to defend her commercial ships afloat. We have an advantage in possessing practically no commercial ships afloat, but we have cities that could be gassed and bombed very conveniently.

We also have eight thousand million dollars worth of gold buried in a hole somewhere, that could easily be extracted by gentlemen with a big enough air fleet over Washington, D. C.

EVERYBODY KNOWS that Japan has accomplished wonders since Perry sailed his ship to the Japanese capital, was politely received and opened Japan to the western world.

If you ask WHY has Japan gone ahead so fast, here are two answers, incomplete, but important:

First: No Japanese child is brutally punished as children are punished in "Christian" countries. No Japanese father or mother beats a child. If you raise your hand to a Western "Christian" child, the child will scream and run. Do that to a Japanese child and it will smile in your face. It knows that men never strike children.

SECOND: JAPAN LEADS all other nations in literacy, the ability to read, which means ability to absorb knowledge. It can't be done without reading.

In 1925, 99.4 per cent of all children in Japan attended school. In 1927, 93 per cent of all Japanese could read. All nations repeat the saying:

"Give light and the people will find their own way."

The Japanese give light through education.

THE GENERAL ELECTRIC CO. has developed, electrically, a temperature of 13,000 degrees Fahrenheit, announced as "hotter than the sun's 9,000 degrees."

But 9,000 is only the sun's external temperature.

Go some distance into the sun's interior, where atoms are throwing off electrons to supply us and other planets with heat and light, and you would find a temperature of 40,000,000,000 degrees centigrade. When will Gerard Swope develop that temperature artifically?

AN INTELLIGENT group of motorists announces a "safe driving campaign for August," urging automobile drivers to consider safety, particularly in their own cars.

The safest thing would be to send tens of thousands of cars now running to the junk pile, get new cars and live longer. Modern tires give miraculous mileage, but often they look "good for ten thousand miles more" when they have reached the danger point.

Mr. W. A. James, of Detroit, suggests wisely that drivers "analyze their own driving for habitual mistakes." The worst mistake is too high speed, the next worst is turning your head away from the road. It takes less than a second to be killed.

IT IS SUGGESTED that the League of Nations take over control of Ethiopia and run that fertile country. Some Ethiopians, probably, would prefer to be run by Mussolini. Under his direction they might "get somewhere." They would probably not do that under League of Nations control.

Someone has said:

"A committee cannot run a newspaper."

It cannot run a country either.

IN YUGOSLAVIA, 20 YEARS ago, Alexander Bogar, now living in Minneapolis, Minn., killed a friend in a fight. Wishing to make amends, he offered to marry the widow. That could not be done. He has saved $15,000, working in mines, and now offers the money to the 22-year-old daughter of the man he killed. She is poor and will accept.

Atonement by payment is almost as old as murder. There are still countries in which crime may be paid for, in cash, the amount depending on the rank of the person murdered.

CHICAGO IS seriously afflicted with counterfeiters, and Secret Service men say that putting Capone in jail stimulated the counterfeit racket. What Capone said "went" in his days of power, and while he was an underworld boss in Chicago he forbade counterfeiting, because "I don't want this town to have a bad name." He did not want counterfeiters to attract Government agents that might interfere with his "honest beer racket."

To investigate the crime world is like looking into one of those little Japanese wooden eggs. You take off one cover, then another, and there is always another inside.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS says a saloon in Dallas, Tex., advertises "sixty cents an hour for beer drinking." You pay one cent a minute and may have as much beer as you can drink in 60 minutes for sixty cents. What line would you add to that statement?

KANSAS CITY HAS $40,000 FIRE LOSS

Stockyards Threatened But Blaze Is Brought Under Control

(International News Service)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 31.—A fire which threatened the entire Kansas City stockyards was brought under control today with damage confined to a $40,000 loss in horse and mule barns belonging to the Fred Owen Company.

Twenty-five companies fought the blaze which was discovered at 4 a. m. One fireman was overcome from the heat of the conflagration which roared in a spectacular manner through the tinder-like structures, attracting hundreds of persons to the scene.

Approximately four hundred army horses and mules which, it was understood, were consigned for shipment to the British government, were saved. Turned loose in the streets, the frightened animals hindered the firemen, precipitating a scene of wild disorder until finally corraled.

At 6:30 a. m. this morning firemen announced the fire under control and the danger to the stockyards past.

Young Physician Is Found Dead In Woman's Apartment

Detroit Police Investigate Facts Of Death Of Dr. A. W. Bowles

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Mich., July 31.—A tragic denouement of a week-end party came today with revelation of the death of Dr. Arthur W. Bowles, 25, prominent young physician here, whose lifeless body was found in the apartment of Mrs. Betty Wright, an erstwhile artists' model.

Dr. Bowles, the son of Dr. Loetta Bowles, also well known in medical circles, apparently died from an overdose of narcotics, Deputy Coroner Lyle C. Line declared. Police ordered a chemical analysis of the internal organs of the body to establish the exact cause.

Mrs. Wright, hostess to Dr. Bowles during a period starting Saturday afternoon and ending with the discovery of the body, was being detained in jail pending a complete investigation. Her husband, Charles, also was held.

In statements to police Mrs. Wright told of a week-end of drinking with the physician at her apartment and several Detroit dancing cafes while her husband denied all knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the doctor's death.

ADDIS ABABA, July 31.—Details of a new revolt by Italian Somali tribesmen against the military authorities driving them into preparation for war with Ethiopia were received here.

Reports brought by courier said 400 Somalis of the Deimijjarten tribe, put to work building a military road to the interior from the seacoast, attacked their Italian guard and fled, carrying thirteen Italian machine-guns and several rifles.

Two hundred of the rebels took refuge in Ethiopia, the reports stated. The remainder fled to British and Ethiopian Somaliland.

The revolting tribesmen were among a large number of Somali natives recruited by the Italian military authorities to aid in war preparations. Italian soldiers assigned to superintend their work were said to have mistreated them and aroused great hatred by seizing a number of their women.

Most of the Somali tribesmen are Mohamedans, to whom violation of womanhood is the gravest sort of insult.

News of the revolt was received with great satisfaction in Ethiopia, and was held to constitute proof of the grave difficulties the Italians face in winning support of the wild Somali tribes for their war plans.

Several similar incidents have been reported in recent weeks, but have concerned small groups. Mass defection of some 400 tribesmen was regarded as a severe blow not only to the Italian plans but to Italy's prestige also.

Twelve-Year-Old Girl Is Mother

(International News Service)

HAGERSTOWN, Md., July 31.—A 12-year-old Maryland mountain girl gave birth to a healthy seven-pound blue-eyed baby girl in Memorial hospital at Cumberland, Md., eight days ago, it was learned here this afternoon.

Both mother and daughter were reported by hospital authorities to be "coming along fine." The birth was normal despite the age of the mother and despite the fact she recently underwent an operation in the same hospital.

The girl-mother, believed to be the youngest mother in the eastern section of the country, is Mrs. Bernice Biggins Stotler. She lives near Hancock, Md., 35 miles from here. Her husband, 19-year-old Irvin E. Stotler is a member of a nearby Civilian Conservation Corps camp.

Former Senator Gillette Is Dead

(International News Service)

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 31.—Frederick H. Gillett, 83, former United States senator and speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives for six years, died today in Springfield hospital. He had been stricken with lukemia aggravated by old age.

Gillett, a Republican, served 32 years in the house and six in the senate. He succeeded the late Champ Clark as speaker, which post he left to run for the senate.

He was a native of Westfield and was graduated from Amherst College and Harvard University Law School.

Past Noble Grand Association Meets

The Past Noble Grand Association of Lawrence county met on Monday evening in the Bank Building, Ellwood City. The meeting was called to order by President Nellie Houk.

Various committee were appointed and the regular order of business was carried out. Grand Master C. W. Fenton was present and gave some instructive information and a very interesting talk.

The next meeting will be in New Castle on August 26.

Japanese Troops Ordered To Rescue British Journalist

(International News Service)

PEIPING, July 31.—Japanese troops today were ordered to the rescue of Gareth Jones, noted British journalist, who is in the hands of Chinese bandits in the Paochang hills.

Herbert Mueller, German correspondent, who was captured with Jones, has arrived at Kalgan, reporting that Jones has little clothing with him and the temperature is dangerously low.

Crash Victims Leave Hospital

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lentz, aged 29, of Canonsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bryson, of 310 Knox street, who were injured when the automobile in which they were riding skidded and upset on the New Castle-Ellwood City highway Sunday morning, returned to their homes from the New Castle hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Andrew Metz, 82, of 315 Knox street, who was also riding in the car, died enroute to the New Castle hospital.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Miss Norma Heidrick, of 116½ West Long avenue, who was struck by an automobile on Long avenue recently, has returned to her home from the New Castle hospital.

Scanlon To Start Bridge Repairs

MERCER, July 31.—The County Commisisoners signed contracts today with E. E. Scanlon of New Castle for the construction and repair of 7 county bridges.

The work will be done at a cost of $18,000.

Scanlon was low bidder on the work at the letting held in June. Work has been held up until approval could be secured of the PWA engineers. The bridges are being built and other work done by the commissioners on a grant of $200,000 loaned the county through the PWA in 1934.

FORMER GOVERNOR HITS RELIEF SETUP

BUTLER, Pa., July 31.—Dissatisfaction over the manner in which relief is being administered was expressed today by Coleman L. Blease, former governor of South Carolina, who was a guest at the Hotel Nixon here.

The exlgovernor was only lukewarm towards the "New Deal" and indicated that he may fight President Roosevelt next year. Speaking of relief, he said:

"In my state, we are feeding people who will not work and never did. Others on relief refuse to work through fear of being removed from relief rolls, and hundreds are on relief and driving their automobiles—some of them having colored servants in their employ."

NEPOTISM

Noah Webster's Dictionary defines "nepotism" as, "Favoritism shown to relatives; bestowal of patronage by reason of relationship."

Nepotism of present County Commissioners has placed the burden of an additional Sealer, or Inspector, of Weights and Measures upon Lawrence County taxpayers. And this at a time when delinquent taxes are increasing by leaps and bounds, and those yet able to pay are doing so at personal sacrifice.

A. E. Conner on June 10, 1935, and P. O. Elder on June 29, 1935, through the newspapers announced to the public that they were running on their "record" and were seeking your vote as approval thereof.

Can we afford to vote approval of costly nepotism during these times?

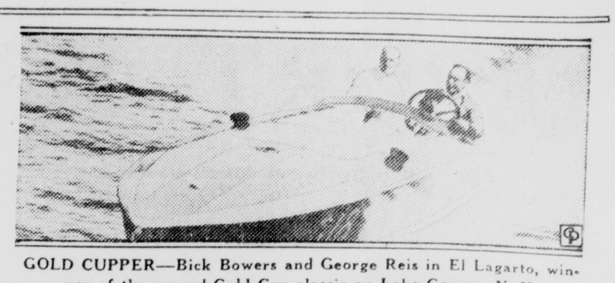

This is an unpleasant matter; but it must be faced courageously in the interest of economy and good government.

Chicago Cubs Are Climbing

Cubs Make Hay In Pittsburgh As Giants Split With Phillies, Cards Lose

YANKS-TIGERS BOTH DEFEATED

By TONY PUGLIESE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 31.—While the eyes of baseball are centered on the New York Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals, who were slated to be the contenders for the National League pennant, a casual glance toward Charley Grimm's fast moving Chicago Cubs might not be amiss. For the Bruins are coasting along under the impetus of a winning streak which has hit 10 straight, making their record show 23 winnings in the last 26 games played.

In winning their tenth straight yesterday, the Cubs, behind the four hit relief pitching of Bill Lee, floored the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9 to 6. French started for the Cubs, and was removed under fire in the initial frame, as the Buccaneers tallied four times. The Cubs overcame the Pirates 4 to 2 lead with four in the second, and added three more to the fourth.

Cubs Advance

By winning, the Cubs came within a game of the Giants who split a bargain bill with the lowly Phillies. Three ex-Giants gained sweet revenge in the opener. Johnny Vergez blasted out two home runs. Joe Bowman kept the Giants 10 hits well scattered, and George Watkins hit a single, a double and a triple, to aid in the 11 to 5 Philly win. In the closing setto, Hal Schumacher won for the Giants, 8 to 2, as he held the Phils to eight hits, and coasted in behind a 6 to 0 lead in the first three innings.

The St. Louis Cardinals, after getting away to a 5 to 1 lead over the Cincinnati Reds, saw them come back strong in late innings to eke out a 6 to 5 win.

In the American League Schoolboy Rowe was again defeated as the St. Louis Browns took the measure of the league leading Detroit Tigers, 8 to 6.

Macks Top Yankees

The New York Yankees, continuing their evil ways, dropped their first game in Shibe Park this year, as the Philadelphia Athletics won out 6 to 5.

The Chicago White Sox, making their bid for second place in the league standings, came within a game of the Yankees, as they defeated the Cleveland Indians, 8 to 6.

And don't count the Boston Red Sox out of the picture yet. Fred Ostermueller's four hit pitching performance gave the Sox an 11 to 4 win over the Washington Senators.

Croton All-Stars Top Progressives

Croton All-Stars a newly organized soft ball team handed the Croton Progressives a shellacking at Castle Beach field last night. "Pip" Bonfield, Radiator ace went to the mound for the All-Stars and dished up but three scratch hits. He fanned six men.

The All-Stars led by B. Kneram and Cimmini with two hits found the pitching of Malley for eight hits. Malley was wild walking five men. The game was halted at the end of the sixth by darkness. Coach Nick Cavalier and his Croton All-Stars will play any team in New Castle. H. Pascarella hita homer for the losers.

New Castle High Football Team Will Go To Camp In One Month

The summer is just about over, one month from today the New Castle High football team will be in camp at Muddy Creek Falls. Coach Phil Bridenbaugh will soon issue a call for candidates to report for selection to camp.

It is possible that about 35 boys will be taken to Muddy Creek camp for preliminary training.

Slovaks Defeat Mahoning Reserves

Slovak A. C. baseball team gained an 8 to 7 verdict over the fast Mahoning Reserve team last night at the Clifton Flats field, with the Mahonings climbing on S. Wrona in the sixth and seventh for all seven of their runs.

The Slovaks scored in the early part of the game, getting two in the first, one in the second and four in the fourth. P. Russo on the hill for the seventh warders was found for 13 hits. S. Wrona gave up seven hits.

Gonda was the feature hitter of the game with three safe bingles. Zidow and Grednick played fine ball in the field, making many sensational stops of hard hit balls. M. Mehalic made a one-handed catch of a long liner that was ticketed for a homer.

Olympic Funds May Fall Flat

Do Not Expect Catholic And Jewish Organizations To Contribute Funds

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, July 31.—There seemed to be a noteworthy interlude today in what had been some pretty general agitation about taking the 1936 Olympic games away from the Germans and maybe holding them on a barge in the East river, the suggestion now being more or less officially made that further protests are likely to be financial, rather than sentimental or emotional. Briefly, the A. A. U. does not look for anything lavish in the way of Catholic or Jewish contributions to a fund that might help to underwrite success for a Nazi promotion.

Meanwhile, sentment that had been all for boisterous alternatives seemed to have become strangely inarticulate. Even Jeremiah Mahoney, the A. A. U. president, whose outburst initiated the clamor, appeared to have determined upon a policy of silence. Anyhow, he declined a radio invitation to discuss the Olympic situation in any way that pleased his taste, although not many days before his was no negative attitude.

No Impulsive Action

As for Daniel J. Ferris, the A. A. U. secretary, it was clear that he counseled restraint as against impulsive action that might lead almost anywhere. Personally, I think that any leading that will be done will be in the direction of the German beer garden. Anyhow, he said, for one thing, that Frederick W. Rubien, Olympic committee secretary, was mistaken in stating that the site of the games could be changed by the international committee practically at its own whim. For another, he declared that the Catholic clergy were opposed to a boycott, as indeed I suspect is true of a great many people. For a third, in speaking of Olympic funds, he mentioned "several new plans for raising the money," which seemed a tacit admission not only that old plans won't do, but that Berlin is still our objective for 1936.

Finally, true to my trust, I interviewed Joe Jacobs, the non-Aryan prizefight manager, who has just returned from Germany. He said he knew nothing, but I'm afraid there's no news in that.

Unions-Capitolos To Battle Thursday

The feature game on the New Castle Soft Ball league card for Thursday night is the Union-Capitolo game at B. & O. Field. The game results from a recent 2-2 tie game at the B. & O. team, between the two leading Italian teams.

This will be the fourth game of the current series for the two teams and victories are split one and one. Tom Conti and Bert Evans will handle the game as umpires.

The Unions have signed Jack "What-a-Man" Llewellyn and Otto Maki to their roster and expect to give the Capitolos a lot of competition. Manager Texie Richards will probably send Frank Babe, his ace-in-the-hole to the mound for the Unions, with Manager Bill Ross sending Rod Pezzone to the firing line.

Radiators Hold To League Lead

The National Radiators still lead the New Castle Soft Ball league with eight victories and one defeat. The St. Andrews and Unions still have a chance to overtake the Rads.

Following is the standing of the league including games played Monday night.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Radiators	8	1	.888
St. Andrews	6	2	.750
Unions	6	2	.750
Croton	6	3	.666
Capitolos	4	3	.571
Saks	5	4	.555
Davis	3	5	.375
Tolans	3	4	.423

Merchants Will Battle Mahoning

The East Side Merchants will play the strong Mahoning Indies team at Shenango High field in East New Castle Thursday night. The game will start at 6 o'clock. The Merchants would like to book all Class A team in Lawrence county and surrounding counties. For games call 2357-R.

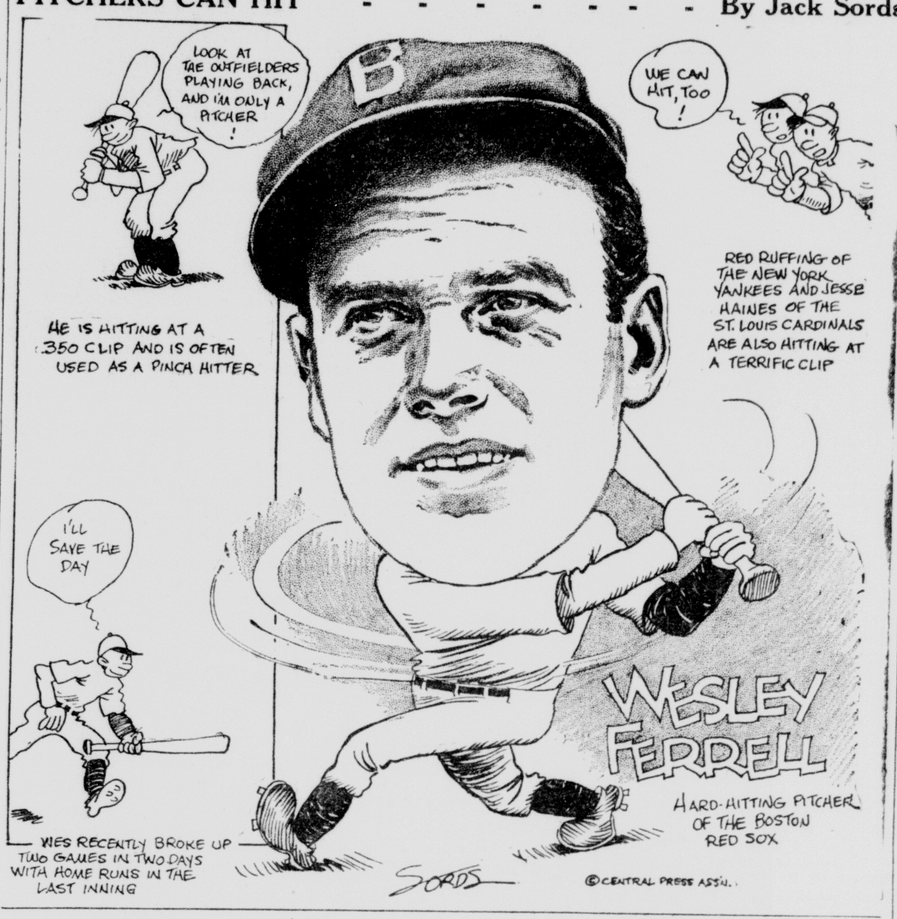

E. S. MERCHANTS WIN

East Side Merchants soft ball team of the National Junior league won from the Young Syrians at Lehigh field, 11 to 9, in a well played game. Laitenen held the Syrians to seven hits. He fanned 11 men. The Merchants had 12 hits off of Joseph. The leading hitters of the game were Doran, McKibben, Kelly and Heims.

Johnson Bronze Golfers Win Match

Takig four out of six games from the Rieck-McJunkin team in a postponed match of the New Castle Golf League last evening. The Johnson Bronze golfers practically eliminated the Rieck-McJunkin team from any chance of winning the flag at the Muny Course, last evening.

Riecks have been fighting hard all season for the lead, but with only two more matches to play, will be unable to cut down the safe lead that Conn's have amassed.

The results of play were as follows:

Johnson Bronze—Fenati, 0 points, 42; J. Stone, 1 point, 43; Bandler, 1 point, 50; H. Gill, 0 points, 46; Rodenbaugh and Yoho, one point each by forfeit.

Rieck McJunkin—West, 1 point, 42; Twaddle, 0 points, 43; T. Jones, 0 points, 44; Hughes, 1 point, 42.

Four Games In Lawrence League

Lawrence County Baseball league teams will be busy with twilight affairs today, four games being calendared for 6 p. m. The games will be played as follows: A S & T P at West Pittsburg, Mahoning at Hillsville, Ryantown at Wampum and Bessemer at Carbon.

Three Games In Soft Ball Loop

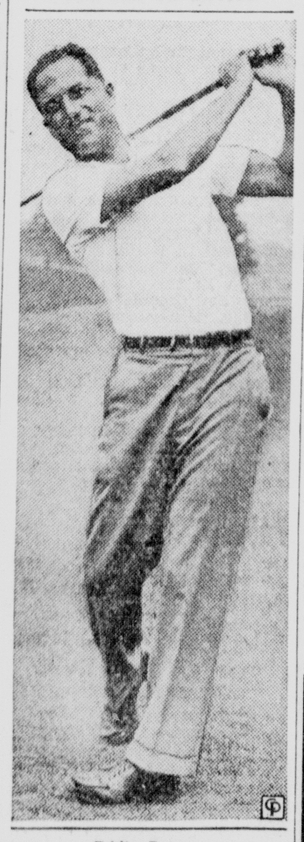

Three games will be played in the New Castle Soft Ball league tonight with all games starting at 6 o'clock. The feature game will take the Capitolos to Radiator field for a league tussle for the edification of the East Siders at their big picnic at Cascade Park.

President Walther has assigned Earl Riley and Bert Evans to handle this important game.

At the B. & O. field the Tolans will battle the Unions with Russ Kawa and T. Conti assigned to the game. Croton Progressives will go to Gaston Park for a game with St. Andrews team, and the umpires will be H. Smith and Huston.

It is perfectly safe to eat oysters and ice cream at the same meal.

FIREMEN WIN FROM RYANTOWN

Firemen Take Game Due To Thornton's Superb Pitching

Sixth Ward Fire Department defeated Ryantown of the Lawrence County League, 2-0, Tuesday at the Ryantown field.

Thornton hurled a brilliant game, limiting Ryantown to three hits. Six men went down via the strike-out route. Only three men were able to get on base and but one man reached third, only to be left on base.

VanEman took the mound for Ryantown and gave up six hits for a total of two well earned runs. VanEman struck out five of the "smoke eaters."

The game was the third of the series between the teams. The Firemen have won two and the third game ended in a tie.

The fielding of J. Otto, right fielder of the Firemen was an outstanding feature, three times he went deep into right field to make beautiful catches. Don Campbell also played a fine game for the Firemen at third base.

Lannigan and Chill drove out doubles for the only extra base hits of the game.

A large crowd of fans witnessed the game between the two West Side teams.

The Firemen are idle now until Friday evening when they travel to Grove City where they will take on the Grove City Collegians.

Score by innings—		R.	H.	E.

LONDON, July 31.—Young Donald Budge of Oakland, California, steadily advancing towards his peak, stood out today as the probable Cup team.

Following the blanking of the American team by England—the first time that has happened since Australia did it in 1911—Wilmer Allison, erstwhile No. 1 rancer in America, signified that he would not be a member of the aggregation next year. That breaks up the famous doubles team of Allison and John Van Ryn, besides leaving a singles vacancy.

Sidney B. Wood, on the squad this time but not given a chance to play, is still a possibility for next year, but it was regarded in tennis circles here that America's best bet would be to build anew with some of the coming youngsters around the California Red-Head who won once and lost once to "Bunny" Austin this summer.

Braddock Awards Wrestling Title To Dan O'Mahoney

(International News Service)

BOSTON, July 31.—Aftermath of a riotous wrestling match at Braves Field, in which Danno O'Mahoney, of Ballydehob, Ireland, was declared heavyweight champion of the world over Ed Don George, North Java, N. Y., today came the cry of "robbery" from George.

"I'm still champion," declared George. "Jimmy Braddock counted O'Mahoney out by 20 after I threw him from the ring for the second time. That meant that O'Mahoney was beaten."

"I was back in the ring at the count of 19." Countered Danno.

O'Mahoney, seven month ago a 22 year old Irish farm boy, was awarded the victory after one hour and thirty minutes by heavyweight boxing champion James J. Braddock, who served as referee, after George was unable to continue because of the effects of being tossed out of the ring by the powerful Irishman, striking his head on a wooden chair on his trip to the canvas-covered Greensward of the ball park.

Cold Rolls Team Trims Fankhousers

Cold Rolls team of the Tin Mill soft ball league took the first game of a three-game series from the Fankhousers last night at the Cedar street field. The final score was 5 to 4. "Ace" Kendra on the knoll for the Cold Rolls pitched a fine game for the winners and in addition helped to win his own game with a terrific home run drive.

Morgan also hit heavy for the Cold Rolls. Heavy hitting for the "Fanks" was done by Koszela, and W. Kreuger. Stack on the hill for the losers allowed the Cold Rolls but six scattered hits. The next game will be played Tuesday at Centennial Field.

Score by innings:		R.	H.	E.
Cold Rolls	.....000 300 011—5	6	2
Fanks	.....012 000 001—4	10	2

Batteries: Fankhousers, Stack and Budai. Cold Rolls: Kendra and Morgan.

MERCHANTS WILL PLAY

East Side Merchants soft ball team, champions of the National Junior soft ball league will play the Lehigh A. C. tonight at Cascade Field at 5:30 o'clock as a part of the East Side picnic. Announcement of the game was made today by Harry Mack.

Iowan Leader Of Qualifiers

Lloyd Nordstorm, Of Davenport, Iowa, Leads Public Links Qualifiers

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—By nightfall there will be only sixteen of the sixty-four qualifiers in the championship flight of the national public links tournament left in the running.

For in today's forenoon first round, thirty-two of the country's best public links players, or half the qualifying field, will have been eliminated and sixteen more will fall by the wayside in the afternoon second round. The first, second, third and quarter-final rounds will be over the 18-hole route. The semi-final and final rounds will be 36 holes.

Unknown Shines

But no matter what the outcome of competition from now until the champion is crowned Saturday, this tournament has been one grand success for Lloyd Nordstrom, Davenport, Iowa, slicing machine salesman, who left his slices at home. Nordstrom, comparatively unknown and never before a qualifier in a national meet, romped off with medalist honors by scoring a 71-74 for a total of 145 strokes during the 36 holes of qualifying play. His short iron game was a high spot of the meet.

As individual low scorer, the unassuming Swede succeeds Albert ("Scotty") Campbell, former Northwestern and Canadian amateur champion who was medalist at Pittsburgh last year with a card of 144.

Crusaders Have Busy Schedule

St. Andrews Crusaders soft ball team will have a busy schedule this week, meeting the Young Syrians at Gaston Park this morning and tonight going to Seventh Ward for a game with the Mahoning A. C. team.

Yesterday the Crusaders won a forfeit game from the Croton Merchants when the latter team failed to show up. The Croton Merchants have dropped out of the Junior league it is understood.

Friday night the Shenangos, champions of the first half of the American Junior league will play the St. Andrews Crusaders at the Gaston Park field. This is an exhibition game. The battle will start at 6 o'clock Manager Dave Riley will start his ace Lane on the mound.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Henry Prusoff, Seattle, provided an upset at Southhampton, N. Y., yesterday when he beat Bryan Grant, Atlanta, rated tenth in the tennis world, 7-9, 6-3, 6-3, Prusoff is rated twentieth. His victory came in the second round of the invitation tournament. Robert Bryan, Chattanooga, lost to Martin Buxby, Miami, 6-2, 7-5. While this was going on at Southampton, Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, Brookline, Mass., led the favored players into the second round at East Hampton, N. Y. with a 6-1, 6-0 victory over Katherine Fox of Southampton, N. Y.

Teddy Yarosz returned to the ring last night to test out his knee which was injured in a bout with Babe Risko at Scranton. No one saw much of Teddy as he knocked out a boxer named Fred Sallus of Syracuse in the second round at Steubenville, O.

Gives Up Idea Of Recruiting For Ethiopia

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., July 31.—Rev. Lutheran F. Davis, Negro pastor of the "Church on Wheels", today abandoned his plans to recruit 250,000 U. S. Negroes for service in Ethiopia in event of war with Italy.

Davis announced he was discarding the plan because "they've dug up a 117-year-old law which prohibits Americans joining foreign armies under penalty of fine, imprisonment and loss of citizenship."

"It seems strange to me," Davis complained, "that they discover the law now after forgetting about it during the world war."

Although the minister did not mention it, authorities expressed the opinion his lack of 249,800 recruits may have had something to do with changing his plans.

MILLBURN

The following program was given under the direction of the home economics committee of the Millburn grange at their meeting on Friday evening:

LIBRARIAN DIES

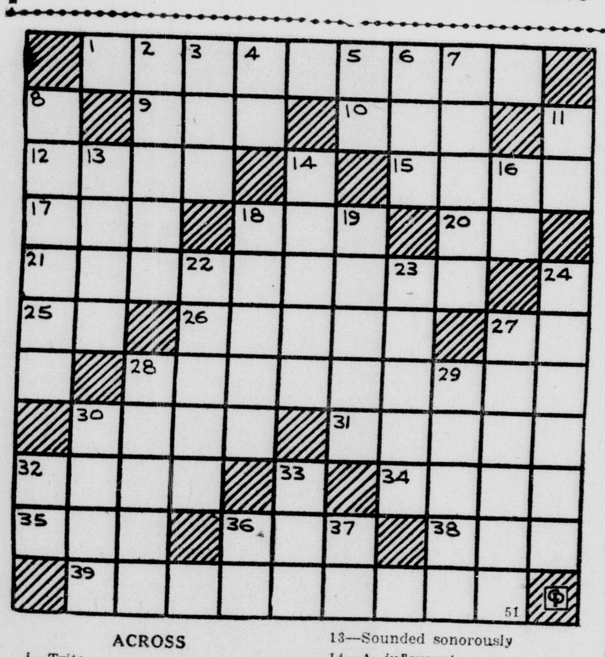

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 31—A career of 40 years as a librarian was at an end today with the death of Alimenta McLane, librarian at the Carnegie Library in McKeesport for the past 15 years.

She died suddenly at the home of a sister, Josie E. McLane, in East Liverpool, O., last night after an illness of a few days. She was visiting her sister when she became ill.

The only lumber operators of the Sumatra East Coast to survive in the last three years were those who had abandoned primitive for modern methods of logging.

Bullish News From Industry Tends To Give Impetus To Stock Market

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, July 31—The stock market turned strong today, many issues rising to new highs for the year.

Bullish news from industry involving further gains in power and steel production cut short the unsettlement which developed yesterday. An added factor was the surprise 50-cent dividend payment by Westinghouse.

U. S. Steel Corp's. disappointing earnings report for the second quarter was reflected in an early decline in the steels. The losses were erased later and gains substituted as buying was resumed under the stimulus of the optimistic iron age review of the industry and its prospects.

Utilities were buoyant under the leadership of Consolidated Gas, which rose over a point to a new high for the year. The power production gain was a factor.

Rails resumed their rise under aggressive buying of N. Y. Central, which quickly rose over a point. Low-priced issues were prominent on the tape, particularly Electric Power & Light.

Oil stocks presented a firm appearance but failed to duplicate yesterday's strength and activity.

Westinghouse spurted to a new high for the year on the dividend news.

Motors strengthened, regaining the ground lost yesterday. Auburn ran up more than a point.

Farm equipment stocks were aided by buying in Deere, which ran up more than a point. The mines were quiet and inclined to irregularity.

Murray and Houdaille Hershey were strong and active in the accessories. The foods were quiet. Liquors firmed up after their recent unsettlement.

Traction shares broke out of their rut with a rise running to more than a point in Manhattan. Revival of unification rumors was the factor.

Western Union was buoyant in the communications, spurting around 2 points. American Telephone was stronger.

Bonds showed a firm tone while grains improved in commodities. The Dutch Guilder rose sharply in foreign currencies.

Pep singing—Led by Sunday school superintendent A. J. Howell.

Address of Welcome—Rev. B. G. Osterhouse.

Fellowship dinner—Served by the ladies of the church.

Reading—Mrs. James Goodwill.

Solo—Prof. Paul Winter.

Solo—Mrs. Keagy.

Address—Rev. W. W. Sniff of New Castle.

Response—Rev. E. G. Aubrey.

This program was prepared by the Elders of the church.

Cars Damaged In Accident Tuesday

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Two cars were considerably damaged in an accident at the intersection of North street and Line avenue about 9:45 last night.

According to a report given local police, Benjamin Harrison West of First street was going west on Line avenue. As he neared the intersection of North street he observed two cars coming north on North street. As the first car started to make a right hand turn onto Line avenue, the second apparently attempted to pass the first on the curve, making a wide swerve around the first car. In doing so the driver of this car, Wallace Steele, of Ellwood R. D. 2, sdieswiped the West car.

Steele was placed under arrest by local police following the accident. No one was injured.

TEACHERS HONOR MRS. L. PROFFITT

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31. — Teachers of District 7 of Beaver county S. S. association concluded the second course of a series of teacher training classes last evening at the North Sewickley Presbyterian church.

In honor of Mrs. L. H. Profitt of Beaver, who has been the instructress for the twelve lessons, the group held a tureen dinner last evening. The thirty-five in attendance were seated at a long table and served a delectable menu by Mrs. John Staph, Miss Bessie Collins, Mrs. R. E. Bell and Mrs. Thomas Baird.

The remainder of the evening was passed in a social manner with games and contests as the diversions. Features of the evening were talks by Mrs. E. R. Smith and Mrs. R. C. Anderson, president and secretary, respectively, of the county organization stressing the importance and objective of these courses, which will be resumed again in the fall.

HAM FRY HELD BY FRIENDSHIP CLASS

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31. — Friendship Circle Class of the M. E. church enjoyed a fine ham fry in Ewing Park last evening with 35 present.

After the dinner the remainder of the evening was enjoyed in a general social manner and with bingo. A number of prizes were awarded as a result. The class will hold its regular meeting next Monday night at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Fox on Beachwood Boulevard.

MRS. CARL ZEIGLER CHARMING HOSTESS

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Fortnight Club members met at the home of Mrs. Carl Zeigler on Wayne avenue yesterday.

For the two tables of bridge in play Mrs. Ralph Connor was awarded the high score prize. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter Joan.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Connor at her home on Glen avenue.

PAST PRESIDENTS OF P. H. C. PICNIC

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Last night 25 enjoyed a tureen dinner held by the past presidents of P. H. C in Ewing Park.

A general social time with games and contests filled the evening.

TENDERED SHOWER

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Harold McQuiston of this city were tendered a shower last Friday evening by Miss Deliah McQuiston and Mrs. Floyd Newton of the New Castle road.

Mrs. McQuiston, who will be remembered as the former Lenora Newton, was the receipient of many lovely and useful gifts at this time. About 50 guests were present from New Castle and Ellwood City.

HOSPITAL NOTES

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Admitted Tuesday: Mrs. Mike Bender of Ellwood City, Emil Boariu of Pittsburgh Circle, Teress DeCario of Second street, Mrs. Emma Baylor of Koppel, and Mrs. George Hemmerly of Fourth street.

Ellwood Coach Is Kiwanis Speaker

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31—Members of the Ellwood City Kiwanis Club heard an interesting talk on boys and football at their weekly meeting in the Trinity Lutheran church Tuesday evening.

The principal speaker of the evening was Ellwood City High's new athletic coach, Russell J. "Denny" Schill. Coach Schill's talk was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by those present.

Miss Louise Scott Is Guest Speaker

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Mrs. R. H. Kirk received members of the Mary Braeden Circle of the Wurtemburg U. P. church last evening for the regular monthly meeting.

Miss Josephine Taylor of Pittsburgh, Miss Ernestine Schink of Duquesne, Mrs. Alfred Chieze and Mrs. Loren Graham of Wurtemburg were special guests.

Miss Louise Scott of Pittsburgh, a missionary to India now on furlough and a cousin of the hostess, was the guest speaker. The speaker gave a most interesting and informative address, contrasting Mohammedanism and Hinduism with Christianity.

In appreciation of her address the president, Mrs. James Hazen, presented her with a gift and also a box of dolls and crayons to be used in her work with the native children.

After the serving of a delectable luncheon by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Francis Kirk, adjournment was taken, to meet again on Tuesday evening, Sept. 6, at the home of Mrs. Harry Wimer of Wurtemburg.

Shelby Juniors To Meet P. N. A. Eagles

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Shelby Juniors hope to make it two straight victories when they clash with the strong P. N. A. Eagles of this city at Ewing Park Field at 6:15 this evening.

The Juniors displayed real promise when they played the Boyles A. C. of New Castle last week. Playing the same brand of ball will get them far. On Saturday they will be hosts to the Colonial A. C. of New Castle.

ISABELLE THOBURN CLASS HAS MEETING

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Mrs. Betty McCready was hostess last night to the Isabelle Thoburn class at her home on Lawrence avenue. Three special guests, Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. Ernest Wilson and Mrs. Dolly McAllister, were among the 25 present.

Routine matters were transacted at the business meeting. Bingo was also enjoyed. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Art Green, and Mrs. Opal McKinney, in serving refreshments.

Next month the class will meet with Mrs. Henry Fox of Wurtemburg.

BETHANY CLASS HAS MEETING TUESDAY

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Yesterday 17 members of the Bethany class were entertained by Miss Mary Ella Gordon at her home in Frisco.

Games and contests were enjoyed. Hildreth Welsh was awarded the prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Nora Norton.

At the business meeting it was decided that the next meeting would be in the form of "a trip around the world."

Y. P. B. MEETING

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.—Young People's Branch of this city will hold its monthly meeting Thursday night 7:45 at Rustic Park. A good attendance is anticipated.

RUBBISH FIRE IS CAUSE OF ALARM

City firemen were called to 331 Locust street, at 10:15 last evening, by an alarm from Box 18, where rubbish was burning in the yard of Joe George. There was no damage.

Accidental burns claimed 434 victims, and conflagration another 121 in Pennsylvania in 1934.

Few men are so good that there is no night work for the conscience to do.

Announce Marriage Of Ellwood City Girl

Miss Frances Romack Becomes Bride Of Earnest Hensley In Kentucky

ELLWOOD CITY, July 31.— An event of unusual interest was revealed today when it was announced that Miss Frances Faye Romack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin J. Romack of Pershing street, became the bride of Earnest Hensley, a local high school teacher, last Saturday morning at Walton, Ky.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. M. Irven of the First Christian church. The couple were attended by Miss Eileen Conner and Gilbert Eroger of Kentucky.

The bride was attired in a white crepe ensemble with accessories to match. She carried a shoulder corsage. Following the ceremony all motored to Lexington, Ky., where a wedding dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hensley will remain there during the month of August, where the former is attending summer school at the University of Kentucky. They will return to this city before the opening of school here. Mr. Hensley has been an instructor in the commercial department of the local high school for the past six years. They will make their home in this city. Mr. Hensley graduated from a Kentucky college.

Mrs. Hensley graduated from the local high school with the class of '29 and for the past five years has been secretary of the local Community Service League. When the league was abandoned early this month she became secretary in the state relief office here.

Little Clarann Olzak Is Injured While On Visit In Punxsutawney

(International News Service)

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., July 31.—Little Clarann Olzak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Olzak, Ellwood City, Pa., today found her visit at the home of J. P. Downey here a painful one.

The girl suffered foot burns last night when clothing on the bed in which she was sleeping caught fire. It was believed the blaze started when paper that had been placed around an electric light globe to keep the glare from her eyes became ignited and dropped on the bed.

The fire occurred as the baby was sleeping. Her parents and the Downeys were downstairs at the time. Downey extinguished the flames and rescued the infant. The bedclothes were destroyed.

Firemen of three local companies, meeting to discuss a district fire convention, were called from their sessions by the alarm.

Mrs. Ray Showalter Meets With Accident

Mrs. Ray Showalter, of Hillcrest avenue, had the misfortune to meet with an accident at camp, near Emporium, Monday, which had serious complications.

Just previous to the departure of others in the camping party for their return to this city, Mrs. Showalter swallowed a small chicken bone. She was rushed to St. Mary's hospital, near Emporium, and from there to this city about 3 a. m., where x-ray pictures were taken.

It was thought for awhile that she would have to be taken to Philadelphia for an operation, but pictures showed Tuesday, that the bone had passed beyond the lung, and while puncturing the organ, it was thought that the danger point was less critical. She is at the home of Mr. Showalter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Britton, or Walnut street, where it is reported, she is resting easier today.

The Showalters and their family had intended staying in camp for another week or so, but the accident cancelled these plans.

News Employes And Families Picnic At Park

Outing On Tuesday Afternoon Enjoyed By Large Crowd

MANY FEATURES MARK PROGRAM

Everybody's picnic is of interest to newspapers and newspaper employes. Everybody's business is too. But turn a group of newspaper men and women loose on their own picnic and they have as much fun as though they had never seen one before.

Tuesday, July 30, was the annual picnic of the New Castle News, in Cascade park, and the folks who get out your daily paper spent the afternoon and evening just funning. Editorial, mechanical and business office, there wasn't any difference in the amount of fun they had, for everybody took the limit.

Early in the afternoon swimming in the Billy Glenn pool was enjoyed. At 5 o'clock a group picture of the employes and their families was taken and a picture of the employes only. Then the supper, a symphony in satisfaction, speaking gastronomically, a layout that looked like a wholesale delicatessen shop, served in style by L. B. McAneny, W. L. Burton and John Daugherty. The supper was the courtesy of J. F. Rentz, general manager of The News, to his employes and from a newspaper standpoint the meal was a seven-star final.

Honor Mr. Rentz.

Coincidentally the date of the picnic was also the 53rd anniversary of President Fred L. Rentz' service with The News and as a reminder of the day the employes presented him with a wallet.

A sports program followed with youngsters and oldsters taking part. A list of prize winners is below. Dancing in the pavilion finished the day's events and summing the entire afternoon and evening up in a phrase it was a grand success.

The arrangements for the picnic were handled by a committee consisting of Harry Carlson, chairman; James A. Jackamo, Lloyd Wimer, Miss Jean Glenn, Edward H. Fritz and Bart Richards. All departments of the park joined in extending courtesies to The News picnickers and their appreciation is extended to Chris Coulthard, park manager; William Glenn and B. J. Biondi.

One of the winners in the events, Miss Helen Craig, who won several prizes, is a niece of Howard Hammond, a linotype operator.

Event Winners.

The sports winners follow:

Boys, 8 to 14 years (50 yards)—Lloyd Wimer, Jr.

Girls, 8 to 14 years (50 yards)—Helen Craig, Glasgow, Ky.

ACCUSED IN ASHTABULA

MRS. WARMA PAAVOLA — JOHN WALTONEN

Mrs. Warma Paavola, left, and John Waltonen, right, a boarder at the Paavola home in Ashtabula, O., have been charged with first-degree murder by authorities in the shotgun killing of the woman's husband, Victor, widely known dairyman. Despite the filing of the charges and the locking up of the accused in the Ashtabula county jail at Jefferson, officials admitted that Paavola's death still was a mystery. Mrs. Paavola and Waltonen denied any knowledge of how Paavola met death.

Name Childs To Jamboree Post

Scout Executive Here To Direct Freight Job At Scout Conclave

Scout Executive Chester H. Childs today was appointed by Dr. James E. West, chief scout executive, to the responsible post of freight baggage and express quartermaster for America's gigantic jamboree of 30,000 Boy Scouts at Washington, D. C. from August 21 to 30.

The appointment came today in a letter from Harvey A. Gordon, the jamboree's director of engineering. It asked Mr. Childs to report in the capital city on August 9 or 10.

As freight, baggage and express quartermaster, Mr. Childs, part-time executive here and part-time executive of the Mercer county council, will have direct control over the express movements of the busy jamboree. A staff will assist him.

Known throughout Region Three as an able executive and leader, the new position will bring him into the national scout spotlight and into a high executive post in one of the greatest scout roundups ever attempted in any country. President Roosevelt will participate actively in the jamboree program.

Mr. Childs' Lawrence and Mercer councils will send a delegation of boys to participate in the celebration which marks the silver anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Relief Workers Protest Wages

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—Leaders of the joint labor council of emergency relief project workers today threatened to tie-up all proposed work relief projects in this area as a protest against the "slavery" wage scale of $55 to $94 monthly.

Carrying the protest direct to John M. Townsend, Philadelphia WPA director, Norman Blumberg, acting president of the council, declared a strike of all WPA workers will be called immediately after work is started under "such wages."

Blumberg pointed out an act of legislature of 1915 forbids the federal state employment service, which is handling WPA placements, from supplying labor for any project where a strike has been called.

Estimate Yield From New Taxes At $275,000,000

Democratic Majority Of Ways And Means Committee Files Report Today

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 31.—An official estimate of a $275,000,000 annual yield from the new tax bill was given to the house today in a report of the Democratic majority of the ways and means committee.

The report, submitted to Chairman Doughton (D) of North Carolina, asserted that with further business improvement the taxes might yield $350,000,000 to $400,000,000 a year.

The committee's estimate follows:

Increased surtaxes—$45,000,000.

Graduated corporation tax—$15,000,000.

Excess profit tax—$100.000.000.

Inheritance tax—$86,000,000.

Gift tax—$24,000,000.

The house committee, recommending the bill for passage, asserted that it complied with the general theme of the president's message on taxation to congress.

The report, however, was in striking contrast to that made by the Republican minority. While the Republican report assailed the bill in bitter terms, the majority report was devoted chiefly to an explanation of the measure.

Report Is Made.

Explaining the committee's failure to follow President Roosevelt's recommendation for a graduated corporation income tax ranging from 10 3-4 to 16 3-4 per cent, the majority report said:

"The president recommended the substitution of a graduated income on corporations in lieu of the present income tax proposed at a uniform rate. This is a new principle which has never been used in this country and therefore your committee in section 102 (A) of the bill is recommending only a very moderate graduation."

The committee recommended a graduation from 13 1-4 to 14 1-4 per cent, with $15,000 net income as the dividing line.

The result is, the report said, that 92 per cent of the corporations of the nation, with net incomes of $30,000 or less, will get a tax reduction. Eight per cent will have their taxes boosted.

Speedy Job Done On Name Transfer Task

Preliminary WPA Detail Lists All "Employables" For New Projects

The Federal-State Employment office announced today that because of "excellent co-operation" on the part of the District 10 relief headquarters here, the task of transferring names of all Lawrence county "employables" from the general file to a new FERA form "600" will be completed by Saturday, somewhat earlier than the job will be completed in many surrounding counties.

One of the preliminary details in the task of adjusting employment office and relief files for the coming Works Progress Administration program, the transfer of names is one that has kept many clerks busy for days.

Direct federal relief should end in Pennsylvania, according to information reaching here, within 60 days or as soon as the first of the WPA projects begins. A signal from Washington will release the four billion dollar recovery reservoir into all states.

The employment office here will play a prominent role in placing men on WPA projects.

New Milk Law In Effect Thursday

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 31.—Pennsylvania producers of milk and milk products were warned by the state health department today that under the new milk sanitation law, effective tomorrow, milk and its products must come from state approved sources.

Rigid enforcement of the new law which requires the department's approval of sources of cream and other milk products was indicated in the announcement by Dr. Edith MacBride-Dexter, secretary of health, under the old legislation, milk and milk products used in the manufacture of ice cream could enter the state from unapproved sources by the addition of 2½ pounds of salt or sugar for each 40-quart can. All such raw materials now must come from Pennsylvania approved sources, the department warned.

Albright College Gets Money Gift

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., July 31.—Albright College will receive a $200,000 endowment from the estate of Lewis D. Krause, Allentown business man and a member of the board of trustees for 25 years, college authorities announced here today.

A $100,000 trust fund left to his daughter, Miss Emma Krause, will also revert to the college after her death, it was revealed Krause, who made a $50,000 gift to the college several years ago and retired from the shoe business in 1920, died recently at the age of 90.

Carrying Water For Elephants Is Given Approval

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 31.—Grab your buckets, boys—the line to the elephant tent forms to the right!

Pennsylvania's new child labor law can't halt you from earning your way into the circus by carrying water to the elephants. No less an authority than Secretary of Labor and Industry Ralph M. Bashore said so today.

"Such employment is a transitory thing and is not within the purview of the child labor act at all," Bashore declared. "The department would never act against children in such a case."

GIRL DIES OF BURNS

(International News Service)

BARNESBORO, Pa., July 31.—Six-year-old Ruth Folmar, Spangle, died today in a hospital of burns suffered when her clothing became ignited as she played near a bonfire at her home last night. She received severe burns on the chest, neck and side.

In a recent foursome in upper New York state one of the players threw a baseball around the golf course instead of using clubs. He scored a 32 for nine holes.
